THE CORONAVIRUS

The coronavirus has affected many countries thus far.

Although there have been no confirmed cases of an outbreak in South Africa to date, the minister of health doctor Zweli Mkhize said that we should be prepared.

Platinum Bushvelder took to the streets to find out what our readers have to say about the virus.

"I can see our government is trying their best to do what is necessary, and I don't think we should panic. We must take precautions to make sure we don't get the virus. Let us prepare and hope the best.."
