

DIE PRAGTIGE STEM VAN ENDIA

Thabazimbi - Endia Rezgale, 'n bekende internasionale Latviese sangeres, het op Saterdag 22 Februarie 'n asemrowende vertoning gegee by die Nederduitse Gereformeerde (NG) Kerk Thabazimbi.

Die vertoning was spesiaal gehou ten bate van die Abraham Kriel Kinderhuis in Nylstroom. Haar stem het die mense bekoor en almal was in vervoering.

"Thabazimbi het 'n baie spesiale plek in my hart, dit was my eerste huis in Suid-Afrika. Ek het op 17 Februarie 2002 in Thabazimbi aangekom en die mense het so diep in my hart gekruip. Hulle het my inspireer om te begin sing," het Rezgale in 'n onderhoud met Platinum Bushvelder gesê.

Rezgale was eers baie skaam, maar na sy deur die gemeenskap aangemoedig is het sy besluit om vir klasse te gaan en verder te studeer.

"Thabazimbi is waar ek my stem gevind het en vandaar af het my sang loopbaan begin," het sy bygevoeg.

Sy het 'n vol program terwyl sy in Suid-Afrika is, waar sy by verskeie plekke ook gaan optree, ten bate van die Cancer Association of South Africa.

LAERSKOOL THABAZIMBI VIER VALENTYNSDAG

Thabazimbi - Laerskool Thabazimbi het op Vrydag 14 Februarie die dag van liefde op 'n spesiale manier gevier. Die personeelkamer was vol ballonne en die lekkerste eetgoed terwyl die kinders 'n heerlike piekniek met allerhande lekkernye geniet het op die groen gras.

Die jongspan het lekker piekniek gehou op die gras.

Die personeelkamer was versier met ballonne.

CYCLING FOR A WORTHY CAUSE

Thabazimbi – Eugène Pienaar and five other cyclists are embarking on a 2,500km journey from Beitbridge to Cape Town to raise money for President Kruger Children's Home.

Their initiative, known as 4TheKids Cycle Tour, started on Saturday 15 February and will end on Sunday 8 March.

Proceeds from the initiative will be donated to the home, which has branches in Pretoria and Reddersburg.

The good-hearted cyclist made a stop in Thabazimbi on 18 February before continuing with their journey.

"There are rest days in between the cycling days, and these will be used to visit the children at the children's homes, deliver an encouraging message and playing games with them for a few hours," Pienaar explained.

"We would love for these children to feel special, needed and important. It's about the children, their well-being and moulding them into the best people they can be.

"The aim is to be able to do something special and personalised for the children that have been placed at this home," he added.

Children living at the two homes have been removed from their parents by the courts for various reasons. However, despite their circumstances the children are attending school, and everyone is optimistic of a bright future for them.

The cyclists hope to raise money to buy bicycles, mattresses, stationery, sports balls, toiletries and backpacks for the children.

The FNB Volunteers programme and Radio Pretoria are among the private companies that have thrown their weight behind this initiative.
