His and Hers hair salon owner Hetta Nortier (left) and nail technician Elanie Mienie are taking the necessary precautions to avoid contracting the virus.

South Africa – The first case of the COVID-19 virus in South Africa was reported on Thursday 5 March and at the time of going to print the number of reported cases grew to 17. According to the National Institute for Communicable Diseases, those who are symptomatic have started receiving treatment. Some of these patients are already in the hospital while others, specifically those who are asymptomatic, are in self-quarantine. Contact tracing has also started for all these cases. The most important thing to remember is: don't panic, however equip yourself with knowledge about the virus and take the necessary precautions.
