CAPTIVE LIONS IN DEPLORABLE STATE

Limpopo – The National Council of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals (NSPCA) wildlife protection unit undertook an investigation at two captive lion facilities, owned by the same person, in All Days, Limpopo after receiving a complaint about underweight lions.

The NSPCA inspectors found deplorable conditions – underweight lions, lack of adequate shelter, lack of veterinary treatment, as well as unhygienic and small enclosures.

A warning highlighting the contraventions in terms of the Animals Protection Act No 71 of 1962 was issued, and a meeting was held on site with Mr Riaan de Jager from the Limpopo Department of Economic Development, Environment and Tourism (LEDET) where the condition of the lions was discussed at length. All parties present agreed that the lions were in a dire situation and urgent intervention was required. The NSPCA was assured that feeding was being addressed urgently.

A follow-up inspection was conducted under warrant by NSPCA inspectors, as well as a world- renowned veterinarian with a special interest in large carnivores. The inspection revealed that insufficient improvements had been made by the owner. The NSPCA is in the process of laying charges in terms of the Animals Protection Act No 71 of 1962, with the submission of scientific and medical evidence from what the veterinarian witnessed during the inspection.

On Tuesday 12 May, the NSPCA was informed that seven of the lions housed at one of the two facilities had escaped – this only supports the NSPCA's findings that the owner of these lions is negligent in the way in which these lions are kept, not only within welfare parameters, but public safety as well. The lions were re-captured in the early evening of 12 May and photographs circulating show a deterioration in the lions' condition.

"We believe that permits should never have been granted to this facility to keep lions, or any other predators like the tigers, as not only was the fencing wholly inadequate, but there are specific dramatic shortfalls on the welfare of these animals – and their welfare has consistently been compromised," said NSPCA's wildlife protection unit manager, senior inspector Douglas Wolhuter.

Post the High Court Judgment in 2019 regarding the lion bone quota which the NSPCA brought about, and won, the judgment referred again that animal welfare and conservation are entwined values. Therefore, the welfare should have been considered when deciding on issuing a permit due to the poor conditions and inadequate fencing. The NSPCA has issued further warnings in terms of contraventions of the Animals Protections Act 71 of 1962 to all role-players concerned.

A deadline has been issued by the NSPCA for an action plan regarding the animals and the NSPCA is taking further legal action which will see criminal charges brought about as there is a history of neglect at these facilities which bear a significant influence on the current matter.

SOULFOOD

PSALM 27

¹The LORD is my light and my salvation;
Whom shall I fear?
The LORD is the strength of my life; Of whom shall I be afraid?
² When the wicked came against me
To eat up my flesh,
My enemies and foes,
They stumbled and fell.
³ Though an army may encamp against
me,
My heart shall not fear;
Though war may rise against me,
In this I will be confident.
⁴ One thing I have desired of the LORD,
That will I seek:
That I may dwell in the house of the LORD
All the days of my life,
To behold the beauty of the LORD,
And to inquire in His temple.
⁵ For in the time of trouble
He shall hide me in His pavilion;
In the secret place of His tabernacle
He shall hide me;
He shall set me high upon a rock.
⁶ And now my head shall be lifted up above
my enemies all around me;

Therefore I will offer sacrifices of joy in His
tabernacle;
I will sing, yes, I will sing praises to the LORD.
⁷ Hear, O LORD, when I cry with my voice!
Have mercy also upon me, and answer
me.
⁸ When You said, "Seek My face,"
My heart said to You, "Your face, LORD, I will seek."
⁹ Do not hide Your face from me;
Do not turn Your servant away in anger;
You have been my help;
Do not leave me nor forsake me,
O God of my salvation.
¹⁰ When my father and my mother forsake
me, Then the LORD will take care of me.
¹¹ Teach me Your way, O LORD,
And lead me in a smooth path, because of my enemies.
¹² Do not deliver me to the will of my
adversaries;
For false witnesses have risen against me,
And such as breathe out violence.
¹³ I would have lost heart, unless I had believed That I would see the goodness of the LORD In the land of the living.
¹⁴ Wait on the LORD;
Be of good courage,
And He shall strengthen your heart;
Wait, I say, on the LORD!
