

SIYANDA BAKGATLA PLATINUM MINE

SBPM's and Thabazimbi Local Municipality COVID-19 awareness campaign

Thabazimbi/ Swartklip – The dedicated Siyanda Bakgatla Platinum Mine (SBPM) Management team together with Organised Labour, Thabazimbi Local Municipality's (TLM) Mayor and Councillors, South African Police Services (SAPS), South African National Defence Force (SANDF) and Traffic Police took to the streets on Friday 1 May to raise COVID-19 awareness.

ENTOURAGE ENTERING AT SBPM's BOOM GATES.

SBPM Management, Organised Labour, TLM's Mayor and Councillors, SAPS, SANDF and Traffic Police working together in the fight against COVID -19.

COVID-19 MOTORCADE DRIVE THROUGH SWARTKLIP

COVID-19 pamphlets were distributed in Swartklip to raise awareness.

VISIT TO PLATINUM HEALTH HOSPITAL

Platinum Health Doctor Joseph Shikwane assured attendees that the hospital is ready to screen anyone entering the hospital and to contain any infection should it occur.

UNIONS SHOWING SUPPORT FOR THE FIGHT AGAINST COVID-19

AMCU representatives accompanied the tour.

NUM representatives took their stand to fight the virus.

INTERACTION WITH EMPLOYEES AT THE SINGLE ACCOMMODATION VILLAGE (SAV)

TLM Mayor John Fischer and SBPM General Manager Hobson Jantjies handed out pamphlets to the SAV residents.

VISIT TO IDENTIFIED QUARANTINE SITE

Senior Human Resource Manager Benjamin Mokoka showed the progress of the identified quarantine site for infected employees and community members.

INTERACTION WITH SHOP OWNERS

TLM Mayor John Fischer and SBPM General Manager Hobson Jantjies handed out COVID-19 pamphlets to shop owners around the Mine.

