MAN FORCED OUT OF MOVING VEHICLE

The car was hijacked by criminals posing as potential buyers.

Dumisani Mashele has been urged to assist police with investigations.

Polokwane – Limpopo police have launched a manhunt for suspects who hijacked a VW Golf 3 along Nelson Mandela drive just outside Polokwane on Monday 6 July. The suspects tricked the 30-year old owner of the car by posing as potential buyers responding to an advert that had been posted on social media. “The suspect arrived with his alleged brother and they requested to inspect the vehicle and later asked to test drive it,” police spokesperson colonel Moatshe Ngoepe said. While the vehicle was in motion, one of the suspects produced a firearm and demanded the victim’s cellphone. The victim was then forced from the moving vehicle before the suspects sped off. Members of the community are cautioned to be alert whenever they use social media to sell items. “Police are appealing to Dumisani Mashele to assist with investigations by availing himself at Seshego Police Station or any other police station,” Moatshe said. The registration number of the VW Golf 3 is DZG 357L. Anyone with information that can assist the police, should please contact lieutenant colonel Moruti Mothoa on 082 451 7184, detective warrant officer Kwakwa Ntokola on 076 150 3290 or Crime Stop on 08600 10111.

SOULFOOD

ROMANS 8: 1-14

¹Therefore, there is now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus, ² because through Christ Jesus the law of the Spirit who gives life has set you free from the law of sin and death. ³ For what the law was powerless to do because it was weakened by the flesh, God did by sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh to be a sin offering. And so he condemned sin in the flesh, ⁴ in order that the righteous requirement of the law might be fully met in us, who do not live according to the flesh but according to the Spirit.

⁵ Those who live according to the flesh have their minds set on what the flesh desires; but those who live in accordance with the Spirit have their minds set on what the Spirit desires. ⁶ The mind governed by the flesh is death, but the mind governed by the Spirit is life and peace. ⁷ The mind governed by the flesh is hostile to God; it does not submit to God’s law, nor can it do so. ⁸ Those who are in the realm of the flesh cannot please God. ⁹ You, however, are not in the realm of the flesh but are in the realm of the Spirit, if indeed the Spirit of God lives in you. And if anyone does not have the Spirit of Christ, they do not belong to Christ. ¹⁰ But if Christ is in you, then even though your body is subject to death because of sin, the Spirit gives life because of righteousness. ¹¹ And if the Spirit of him who raised Jesus from the dead is living in you, he who raised Christ from the dead will also give life to your mortal bodies because of his Spirit who lives in you. ¹² Therefore, brothers and sisters, we have an obligation—but it is not to the flesh, to live according to it. ¹³ For if you live according to the flesh, you will die; but if by the Spirit you put to death the misdeeds of the body, you will live. ¹⁴ For those who are led by the Spirit of God are the children of God. ¹⁵ The Spirit you received does not make you slaves, so that you live in fear again; rather, the Spirit you received brought about your adoption to sonship. And by him we cry, “Abba, Father.”

NEW KING JAMES VERSION (NKJV)

PARENTS PLAY A VITAL ROLE IN LEARNER EDUCATION – MANDELA MONTH

South Africa – Eight out of every 10 children in South Africa can’t read properly. Research shows that many parents with low income levels and lower levels of education did not always read to their children or visit the library regularly. This stems from a lack of awareness about the importance of reading activities and because reading and library visits are usually not a part of parents own childhood experiences. However, all parents can support their children’s education both at home and at school, irrespective of their status. The National Reading Coalition (NRC) was established by the National Education Collaboration Trust (NECT) and the Department of Basic Education (DBE) as a comprehensive national response to the reading challenges facing South Africa. NRC programme manager and NECT in North West George Taodzera said, “July is regarded as a Mandela Month in our country. As parents, we have an obligation to nurture our children into successful citizens that will develop the country through education and proper parental guidance. As we celebrate the Mandela Month, we are also faced with COVID-19, a pandemic that has attacked the whole world. If children receive effective parental support guided by good education, the country stands a better chance to develop skilled critical thinkers.” The NRC is a programme developed to respond to the call made by the President Cyril Ramaphosa that all 10-year old learners must read with understanding by the year 2030. Following the African saying that ‘it takes a village to educate a child’, every adult and/or parent in communities has an obligation to contribute to the upbringing of their children. It is also critical that accelerated efforts be made to equip teachers for their task of teaching children to read. South Africa’s children deserve no less. NECT press release extracts, 14 July 2020
