EFF Thabazimbi and concerned community members made their voices heard at the Thabazimbi Police Station.

Thabazimbi – The Economic Freedom Fighters (EFF) Thabazimbi and disgruntled community members gathered in protest at the Thabazimbi Police Station on Wednesday 19 May. Dumbfounded about the allegations against sergeant Rebecca Malethokwa Mfisa, who was implicated in an attempted murder in 2010 in Schweizer-Reneke, protesters wanted to make their voice heard. Rebecca Malethokwa Mfisa, (then 34) was arrested on Friday 21 May after she and three men allegedly shot at a farmer on his farm outside of Schweizer-Reneke, Lieutenant-General Lesetja Ephraim Beetha said. A 36-year-old farmer arrived back at his farmhouse on Friday evening when he was shot at as he got out of his car. The farmer reacted immediately and returned fire upon which the suspects fled the scene. The farmer immediately went into his house and sounded the alert. Neighbouring farmers started looking for the suspects and stopped Mfisa who was driving a bakkie on the Hartsfontein gravel road. Police arrived soon after and discovered her police identification, a gun, police-issue torch, and two-way hand radios in the vehicle. Later that week Modisaotsile Advocate Koki, 37, was also arrested for the crime. Thembile Johannes Rens, 35, who is an ex-policeman and (then) believed to be in a relationship with Mfisa, was handed to police by his lawyer. The fourth suspect is still at large.

Now, 11 years later, Mfisa, who allegedly attempted to murder another person is stationed at SAPS Thabazimbi.

The protestors are disgruntled that Mfisa, under these circumstances are not only still employed by SAPS, but was also promoted by them in the meantime.

A memorandum was handed over to captain Poromi Kgatla noting the EFF and the community's grievances, demanding that sergeant Mfisa and the station commander colonel Bodibe be suspended with immediate effect. SAPS were given seven days to respond.

⁴Love suffers long and is kind; love does not envy; love does not parade itself, is not puffed up; ⁵does not behave rudely, does not seek its own, is not provoked, thinks no evil; ⁶does not rejoice in iniquity, but rejoices in the truth;

Did you know?

Superman used to be a very down to earth guy. In the original Superman comic books, he was able to leap tall buildings in a single bound, but it wasn't until the 1940s when animators decided that bended knees were too difficult to routinely draw... so they decided that Superman could take off into the air.

POLICE IMPERSONATORS ARRESTED

A SAPS bulletproof vest was seized at the crime scene.

Thabazimbi – Five people found themselves in hot water after their plan to impersonate police officers only succeeded in getting them arrested. The five were arrested in Hoopdal outside Thabazimbi after police officers on duty, acting on information supplied by concerned community members, cornered them at a local tavern in the area.

“One of them was armed with a 9mm pistol and was wearing a SAPS reflector jacket. Police swiftly responded and the five suspects were arrested while trying to flee from the scene in a VW Polo,” police spokesperson lieutenant colonel Mamphaswa Seabi said. A SAPS bullet proof vest, a pair of trousers, two constable rank structures, a police belt, a 9mm pistol, and a reflector jacket were among the items seized when police searched the vehicle. All suspects – charged for impersonating police officers, possession of an unlawful firearm and ammunition, driving under the influence of liquor, and the possession of suspected stolen property – appeared before the Thabazimbi Magistrates’ Court on Monday 18 May. How the suspects managed to get hold of SAPS gear is unknown. An attempt by Platinum Bushvelder to obtain the outcome of the court appearance, or other relevant information from the police regarding this case, was unsuccessful at the time of going to print.

The impersonators failed to explain the 9mm pistol and ammunition found in their possession.

Lengthy jail term for copper-stealing duo

Northam – Two Mozambican nationals will spend a long time behind bars after the Thabazimbi Regional Court sentenced them for trespassing on private property, stealing copper worth an estimated R600,000 as well as being in the country illegally. On Wednesday 12 May, the court sentenced Justice Sithole and Anthony Sabino Napanga to five years imprisonment for trespassing, fifteen years for theft, and six months for being in the country illegally. This was after the state successfully proved in court how the two illegally gained entrance at a mining company before stealing the copper. “Sithole and Napanga will spend at least 15 years behind bars, as both the first and third count will run concurrently,” police spokesperson brigadier Motlalefa Mojapelo said.

CLAMPING DOWN ON CAR THEFT

A Toyota Yaris was confiscated after police discovered the vehicle’s details had been altered.

Ten sets of false? registration plates were confiscated.

Northam – Crime fighting initiatives by traffic law enforcement agencies in Northam and Modimolle are yielding positive results. On Friday 14 May, a traffic operation by the Crime Intelligence Section (CIS), Northam reservists as well as the Modimolle Vehicle Crime Investigation Unit (VCIU) resulted in the seizure of several vehicles. A Toyota Yaris was confiscated during the blitz after it was discovered the vehicle’s registration plates had been altered. Traffic officers also came across a Hyundai H100 LDV bakkie that was stolen in Mabopane. Both vehicles were handed over to Northam SAPS. The driver of a Scania found himself in trouble after it was discovered his vehicle was de-registered and that it had a false license disk and registration plates. Additionally, 10 sets of registration plates were removed from various vehicles. This was after police realised that they had either been wrongly issued or had been registered with different details.

Neighbourhood watch members work hard to keep our communities safe.

Thabazimbi – A community policing forum (CPF) is one of the structures used for crime prevention within communities on their own time and dime. The establishment of CPFs was provided for in section 221(2) of the Constitution and section 19(1) of the South African Police Services (SAPS) Act 68 of 1995. Even though the police remain the operational authority, neighbourhood watches work hand-in-hand with them. To effectively prevent and respond to crime, police need continual feedback, support, and collaboration from members of the community. By working with your neighbours, you can actively contribute to reducing crime.

Said CPF Spitskop member Roelf Crause: “In collaboration with the police, we conduct several crime and preventative initiatives, roadblocks and patrolling.” Whether you are a patroller, or simply function as the eyes and ears of your immediate surrounds – every member counts. When there is an emergency, they have your back. The success of a safety structure cannot be measured by one or two great results, but rather their effectiveness to attend to every emergency call they receive. A safe community is one where members know each other, share information with each other, are familiar with their local environment, and report all suspicious and criminal activity to police.

Ek is so dankbaar dat ek deel kon wees om vir Nash 'n tweede kans te gee,” het Christelle in 'n onderhoud gesê aan Platinum Bushvelder. Nash is op 11 Mei ontslaan en dit gaan baie goed met hom by sy nuwe tuiste.

Voor: Nash het 'n ernstige besering op sy been opgedoen.

A CLEAN SLATE

The landfill site has been cleared.

Northam – Community members and business owners in town are elated, thanks to Siyanda Bakgatla Platinum Mine and Thabazimbi Local Municipality (TLM), who spearheaded a cleanup and facelift of the Northam Landfill Site.

Access roads have now been created for disposing waste properly and landfill demarcations for household waste, garden waste, and rubble have brought order to the sorting process.

“We urge our community members and businesses to dispose of waste accordingly, as directed, and not in the front or at the back of the site. Working together we can do more,” TLM communications manager Joshua Motsomane said. TLM councillor David Gouveia urged community members and the business community to maintain order at the landfill by avoiding dumping waste at undesignated points.

Jenie Horn

No, it was a great opportunity to get a lot of housework done so I used my time productively around the house and keeping busy.

Northam Platinum Rhinos in aksie.

Carleton Liga in Setaria

Setaria – Eerskomende naweek op Saterdag 22 Mei speel die Northam Platinum Rhinos teen die Harlequins van Pretoria op hulle tuisveld in Setaria. Alhoewel die Rhinos die laaste paar wedstryde teen die Harlequins oorwin het, gaan die gras moet spat en 'n wen 'n biellie wees! Daar is nie maklike wedstryde in dié liga nie. Die Carleton liga word gereken as een van die taaiste ligas in die land. Wedstryde begin om

13:00 met die derde spanne, gevolg deur die tweedes om 14:30, met die hoofwedstryd wat om 16:00 sal afskop. Ongelukkig is geen toeskouers welkom nie. Indien die Rhinos dié wedstryd wen, kan hulle na twee wedstryde een van die voorlopers word in die liga. Na die naweek speel hulle ook nog 'n verdere twee wedstryde... en tuis teen die Naka Bulle en daarnaas teen Pretoria Rugby Klub.

Die Carleton liga beker.

The story of the Carleton Cup

For those who have not heard the story yet... On a shelf, among the liquor bottles in a bar in Pretoria, stood a trophy as decoration. The bar was frequented by rugby players. This trophy baffled them. One day, the players started asking questions. However, the bar attendant did not know its origin – where it came from or what it was doing there... The players then asked if they could have it as a trophy to play for. The owner, Lezard, agreed and the trophy was named after the bar 'Carleton'... now coined as the Carleton Cup. Apparently, this took place in 1904. In 1938, Northern Transvaal Rugby broke away from Transvaal Rugby Union and became a rugby entity on its own.

Rainbow Cup SA

Lions vs Stormers

Die Leeus is beroof van 'n oorwinning deur 'n belaglike beslissing deur die skeidsregter en verloor 37-39. Tim Swiel, losskakel, tref die kol met 'n strafskop in 83ste minuut van die game. Die voorry van die Leeus het die Springbok voorry van die Stormers klippe laat kou. Goeie ruggas was aan die orde van die dag. Balhantering aan beide kante was uit die boeke uit. Die Leeus speel op 22 Mei om 13:00 teen die Bulle in Jo'burg. Die Stormers reis Durban toe om teen die Haaie om 15:30 te loop speel.

Bulls vs Sharks

Op Fort Loftus het generaal Steyn en sy makkers die Haaie 'n rugbyles of twee geleer. Steyn op 37 jaar oud speel soos 'n outjie in sy 20's ou grote. Die Bulle het die Haaie in alle gebiede oorheers. Bra Jake was uit sy vel van blydschap en mens kan hom seker nie kwalik neem nie. Die Bulle was goed, baie goed mater! Die Sharks sal wragtag hulle vinne in 'n ry moet kry want hulle draf 22 Mei om 13:00 teen die Stormers in Durban uit. Die Bulle ry Jo'burg toe om teen die Lions om 15:30 te gaan uitdraf.

Super Rugby Trans-Tasman 2021

Die eerste rondte van die Tasman-reeks het die afgelope naweek afgeskop waar Nieu-Seeland en Australië se spanne teen mekaar meeding. Die prentjie lyk maar donker vir die Aussies want die Kiwi's behaal vyf uit vyf oorwinnings. Twee van die games was baie close.
