The laws are changing

Attorney Pulane Manyama shares her expert opinions with our readers.

Know your rights and be part of the process!

SA – After the Firearm Amendment Bill was published in the Government Gazette on Friday 21 May, the country was up in arms. The proposed bill reads... “to provide that no firearm licences may be issued for self-defence purposes”. All interested persons and organisations were invited to submit written comments on the draft Bill to: comments.fcabill@csp.gov.za no later than 45 days from date of publication... which is on 4 July. Did you submit yours?

But... before all this, another amendment bill was published in the Government Gazette on 26 March which almost went unnoticed. This was an invitation for public comments on amendments to The Promotion of Equality and Prevention of Unfair Discrimination Act (PEPUDA), 2000. The purpose of the amendment PEPUDA is to address certain problems that have been identified following a review process of the Act.

The amendments look innocent enough and the big, complicated words they use to addresses inequality – which is a big issue in our country make it sound very solemn. These changes are most likely very well-intentioned, but once you put it in layman’s terms and you think of practical situations where this law might have an effect, the law seems to be contradictory to the values enshrined in our Constitution. ## In remembrance

Barry Dreyer, gebore op 17 Desember 1957, is op die ouderdom van 63 op Woensdag 16 Junie na 'n kort siekbed oorlede. Barry en Annatjie, Antjie Poen, soos hy haar altyd genoem het, is op 26 Augustus 1978 getroud en het vir 43 jaar 'n liefdevolle huwelik gehad. "Jou plekkie is nou leeg my man, ek sal jou altyd liefhê; ek het nie woorde hoe om vir jou dankie te sê vir alles wat jy vir my gedoen het nie! Jy was nie net my sielsgenoot nie, maar ook my beste vriend... My hart is so seer, maar ek weet jy is by Jesus se voete, en ek weet die Here sal my die krag gee om aan te gaan," sê Annatjie. Barry en Annatjie was 19 jaar deel van die Swartklip en Northam gemeenskap, waarna hulle afgetree het in Parys in 2016. Nou ja kyk, ou Barry was 'n reguit op die man af mens met 'n baie klein hartjie. Sy hand was nooit te kort om te help waar hy kon nie. Hy kon baie lekker lag en grappies maak, maar my maat, jy het presies geweet waar jy met hom staan! Sy eerlikheid en sy liefde vir mense rondom hom en sy liefde vir die Here sal altyd onthou word. Barry was ook gekenmerk as 'n wyse en regverdige mens. Hy was lief vir die buitelig en het die lewe behoorlik geniet. Hy het gereeld familie en vriende se kinders gehelp met visvang. "Bring die skepnet" is een van sy bekende sêgoed wat van sy peetkinders onthou word wanneer hulle langs die viswaters was. 'n Kranige visserman wat meer trofeeë gewen as wat getel kan word. Het ook SA Hengel klub en Springbokkleure met sy visvang verwerf. Rus sag ou grote...

RESORTING TO VIOLENCE TO SORT OUT THEIR POLITICAL DIFFERENCES

Lephalale – ANC members reportedly involved in a shooting incident during a branch general meeting (BGM) in Lephalale on 19 June are likely to face criminal charges and disciplinary action from the governing party. Two people were shot and 16 were assaulted and injured in an altercation between party members that turned violent.

Police spokesperson Brigadier Mojalefa Mojapelo said police are still investigating cases of attempted murder, assault, malicious damage to property and public violence. Describing the incident, he said: "Two people were shot and many were assaulted. A number of vehicles were also damaged." Machetes, pangas, knobkerries, and other sharp objects were used during the commotion. It is generally assumed that the violence is linked to ANC factional squabbles.

The shooting incident is a huge blow to the ANC in the Waterberg District, which has since called off all of its activities in Lephalale until safety and security concerns are fully addressed. Luthuli House has also voiced its concerns. "While there has been no loss of life, it remains a source of great concern for the ANC that scores of people were seriously injured as a result of the scuffles that ensued during the BGM," ANC national spokesperson Pule Mabe said.

TRUCK HITS B<sub>AD</sub> SPOT

Northam – Just three days after a truck tipped over on the Mokgalwaneng road towards Northam, another truck tipped over on the exact same spot on 17 June. Eagle Trauma Rescue rushed to the scene where they found the truck on the shoulder of the road. They attended to the driver who sustained a back injury and transported him to Thabazimbi Hospital.

Sad to see a big beauty lying on its side next to the road.

Northam Clinic, use the back entrance

Northam – Several community members contacted Platinum Bushvelder, complaining that Northam Clinic is closed, leaving them without options to get Covid-19 tests and vaccines. We established that they are indeed open. Their main entrance is under construction and residents are advised to use the back entrance in Botha street. "You can get tested for Covid-19, free of charge. You are more than welcome," said Northam Clinic manager Regina Makoka.

Northam Clinic is OPEN, use THIS entrance in Opel street.

Northam Clinic is OPEN, DO NOT use this entrance in Botha street, it's under construction.

LIFE FOR RAPISTS

Thabazimbi – Two men were each handed life sentences after the Thabazimbi Magistrates’ Court found them guilty of a 2019 incident in which they threatened a woman with a firearm before taking turns to rape her. The victim was hitchhiking along the R510 on the 23rd of April 2019 when the incident occurred. The two men offered her a lift in their vehicle and took her to a secluded spot along the R510 road to Prospecturs, where they raped her. The court also declared Tumelo Mataboge and Luckyboy Motlhom, unfit to possess a firearm. An attempt by the two to flee the crime scene was foiled by police detail who were patrolling the area. Constable Thabiso Anbrey Seshoka of the Northam Detective Unit gathered enough evidence for the successful prosecution and sentencing of the two.

The laws are changing

SA – After the Firearm Amendment Bill was published in the Government Gazette on Friday 21 May, the country was up in arms. The proposed bill reads... “to provide that no firearm licences may be issued for self-defence purposes”. All interested persons and organisations were invited to submit written comments on the draft Bill to: comments.fcabill@csp.gov.za no later than 45 days from date of publication... which is on 4 July. Did you submit yours? But... before all this, another amendment bill was published in the Government Gazette on 26 March which almost went unnoticed. This was an invitation for public comments on amendments to The Promotion of Equality and Prevention of Unfair Discrimination Act (PEPUDA), 2000.

The purpose of the amendment PEPUDA is to address certain problems that have been identified following a review process of the Act. The amendments look innocent enough and the big, complicated words they use to addresses inequality – which is a big issue in our country make it sound very solemn. These changes are most likely very well-intentioned, but once you put it in layman’s terms and you think of practical situations where this law might have an effect, the law seems to be contradictory to the values enshrined in our Constitution. You can find the full notice at <https://www.justice.gov.za/legislation/notices/2021/20210326-gg44402gen143-Equality-Comments.pdf>

Platinum Bushvelder spoke to attorney Pulane Manyama who gave us a better understanding as to why these amendments might become problematic. She wholeheartedly agrees with Van Velden Duffey Inc attorney Rego Marakalla who set it out as follows:

“The PEPUDA Act seeks to promote equality and prevent unfair discrimination. It came about as a result of section 9 of the Constitution that broadly deals with all of us being equal, deserving of the protection of law and prohibiting unfair discrimination against anyone based on their race, sex, marital status, colour etc. The Constitution further dictated the Legislature to bring about laws to promote equality and prevent unfair discrimination. There are two sections of amendments – the first being the amendments dealing with prevention of unfair discrimination and secondly the amendments dealing with the promotion of equality.”

2. AMENDMENTS TO THE PROMOTION OF EQUALITY

Specified bodies or entities – namely organs of state, public bodies, constitutional institutions, persons under contract with the State, non-governmental organisations, community-based organisations or traditional institutions; as well as entities in the private sector – are required to comply with the promotion of equality.

In a comment submitted by the National Employer’s Association of South Africa (NEASA) against the amendments of section 24 of the Act regarding the general responsibility to promote equality, it is stated: “The second ‘leg’ of the Act, which deals with the promotion of equality by organs of state, as well as public and private bodies, is not yet in operation. The legislator, in the Background Note to the Bill, states that: “This is due, in part, to the regulatory burden placed on all sectors of society, both public and private.” The cause for the non-implementation being the regulatory burden, was so identified by the Regulatory Impact Assessment conducted by National Treasury. What the Background Note fails to address or confirm, is whether or not a Regulatory Assessment was performed on the proposed amendments themselves. Common sense would lead to the conclusion that provisions in the Act which were not set in operation, due to the regulatory burden they would create, should not be added to, extended and broadened and then served up as a solution to the initially experienced implementation and regulation problems. Why would one create an even more difficult to regulate provision for an already impossible-to-regulate and implement provision?”

On the proposed substitution of section 28 of the principal Act NEASA’s comment notes: “The sheer extent of this amended provision of State responsibility and obligation is cumbersome. The State already suffers from inefficient enactment of law and implementation of policy and legislation. To further administratively burden the State, will most certainly not achieve any goal contained in the PEPUDA.

Whilst all other bodies, apart from the Minister and State, are forced to prove their attempts and financial implications of actively promoting equality and eliminating discrimination, the Minster is allowed to discriminate against different institutions and organisations based on their size, resources and influence. If this in itself does not illustrate discrimination and inequality, then what does?”

1. PREVENTING UNFAIR DISCRIMINATION

Broadening the definition of ‘discrimination’... The current definition of “discrimination” in the Act states:

“‘discrimination’ means any act or omission, including a policy, law, rule, practice, condition or situation which directly or indirectly –
a. imposes burdens, obligations or disadvantage on; or b. withholds benefits, opportunities or advantages from, any person on one or more of the prohibited grounds.”

Amendment (changes in bold)

a. imposes burdens, obligations or disadvantage on; or b. withholds benefits, opportunities or advantages from; or c. causes prejudice to; or *d. otherwise undermines the dignity of, any person related to one or more of the prohibited grounds; irrespective of whether or not the discrimination on a particular ground was the sole or dominant reason for the discriminatory act or omission.

The change to the definition of discrimination seeks to make it clear that it is not necessary for a person to act with intention before they can be guilty of unfair discrimination. The reason why the members of the public strongly object to this is because both elements, discrimination and unfairness, must legally be determined objectively in the light of the facts of each particular case.

Discrimination could be found whether or not it had been intentional and could be direct or indirect. You cannot accidentally discriminate – for instance if you fall on the rug on the floor instead of the bed, you did not discriminate towards the bed in favour of the rug. The fall was unintentional. If a person discriminates already, he has made his choice, and there cannot be an unintentional choice. According to the proposed legislation companies would also be held liable whether the discrimination was intentional or not.

The Bill further proposes the insertion of a new section in the principal Act, after section 29:

“Special measures to promote equality with regard to race, gender and disability
29A If it is proved in the prosecution of any offence that unfair discrimination on the grounds of race, gender or disability played a part in the commission of the offence, this must be regarded as an aggravating circumstance for purposes of sentence.”

If the main focus of the equality legislation in this country is merely to regulate and adjudicate the incidences of racism and hate speech, the Act is sufficient as is, and amendments thereto would not make any difference and are consequently irrelevant and unnecessary.

Conclusion
Inequality is a burning issue for South Africa. These amendments will create loopholes. Should these amendments pass, it will go against the very fibre of our constitutional rights to equality. We will see ourselves face heavy court battles for exercising our right to religious freedom, freedom of speech and many other freedoms enshrined in our Constitution. Whether or not discrimination is fair or not, expensive litigation will be our future if this bill passes, so you better start saving now.

Broadening the definition of ‘equality’
The definition of “equality” in the current Act reads:

“equality’ includes the full and equal enjoyment of rights and freedoms as contemplated in the Constitution and includes de jure and de facto equality and also equality in terms of outcomes.”
Amendment (changes in bold)
“equality’ includes-
a. the full and equal enjoyment of rights and freedoms as contemplated in the Constitution;
*b. equal right and access to resources, opportunities, benefits and advantages;
c. de jure and de facto equality;
d. equality in terms of impact and outcomes; and *e. substantive equality.

Objectivity applies in determining a defence for claims of unfair discrimination. An example of this would be banks that charge a higher interest to people who pose a higher risk of default. They would have to prove justifiability and reasonableness. Once the bill comes into force, there is a duty to eliminate discrimination. Many companies and business would find it difficult to grant the equal access to opportunities and resources and might be exposed to countless penalties. The objective criteria defence will still be available, but companies may nevertheless find it harder to show the fairness of their conduct when the definition of discrimination is so much wider than before.

Expanding the general prohibition of unfair discrimination

The current wording of section 6 of the Act regarding the general prohibition of unfair discrimination reads:

“Prevention and general prohibition of unfair discrimination
Neither the State nor any person may unfairly discriminate against any person.”

Amendment (changes in bold)
6. (1) Neither the State, a public body nor any person may unfairly discriminate against any person.

*(2) Any person who causes, encourages or requests another person to discriminate against any other person, is deemed to have discriminated against such other person.

Fair and legal discrimination

The law sets out four grounds on which discrimination is generally allowed:

- Discrimination based on affirmative action
- Discrimination based on the inherent requirement of a particular job
- Compulsory discrimination by law; and
- Discrimination based on productivity.

Discrimination based on Affirmative Action
Affirmative action measures are designed to promote employment equity (fairness in favour of the designated groups — blacks, women and disabled persons). Affirmative action aims to achieve equality at work without lowering standards and without unduly limiting the prospects of existing employees, for example by getting rid of discrimination in company policies, procedures and practices. Its main aim is generally to ensure that that the previously disadvantaged groups are fairly represented in the workforce of a particular employer.

Discrimination based on the inherent requirement of a job
Any discrimination based on the inherent requirement of the particular job does not constitute unfair discrimination. An inherent requirement of a job depends on the nature of the job and required qualifications. If such requirements can be shown, discrimination will be fair, for example a person with extremely poor eyesight cannot be employed as an airline pilot.

Fair compulsory discrimination by law
The law does not allow the employer to employ children under the age of 15 years, or pregnant women four weeks before confinement and six weeks after giving birth.

Discrimination based on productivity
It is also fair by law for the employer to discriminate on the basis of productivity when giving an increase, for example increases based on merit. This, of course, would be dependent on the fairness of the criteria utilised for assessing performance and productivity.

Information by LabourMan Consultants senior associate and legal advisor Wallace Albertyn.

Know your rights and be part of the process!

(3) If a worker, employee or agent of a person contravenes the Act in the course of his or her work or while acting as agent, both the person and the worker, employee or agent, as the case may be, are jointly and severally liable for a contravention and proceedings under the Act may be instituted against either or both of them unless the person took reasonable steps to prevent the worker, employee or agent from contravening the Act.”

Companies would now have to tread carefully as they might face unfair discrimination practice which is committed unintentionally by their employees, forcing them to change their policies.

This can also affect our freedom of religion like in a situation where a non-religious person attends a church meeting and feels offended by what the pastor said. He can lay a claim against the organisation. That is because the effect of the definition of discrimination would become subjective.

The non-religious person can allege discrimination and that he felt prejudiced or that his/her feelings have been hurt, and that will be all it takes to establish discrimination. That would amount to strict liability. In other terms, it will not be necessary to prove that the church was at fault (either because they acted with intent, or negligently) before they will be found guilty of ‘discrimination’. The pastor and the church can be taken to the Equality Court.

The Bill proposes the insertion of a new section, 9A:

“Prohibition of retaliation
or wishes to institute proceedings in terms of or under the Act.
9A. No person may retaliate or threaten to retaliate against a person who-
(a) Objects to a discriminatory act or omission; or
(b) Instituted

The accused (loosely used) might end up being acquitted of discrimination on several grounds of unfair discrimination but will have to cover his own legal costs as he has no right to retaliate. Whereas the complainant can receive free legal services from legal aid. This is in direct contrast to the entire concept of equality which the Act aims to achieve.

Plastic solution to water-meter theft

Northam – The Thabazimbi Local Municipality (TLM) has decided to implement a multi-pronged approach in their fight to end – or at least significantly reduce – the theft of water meters in Northam and surrounding areas. On Friday 4 June, Platinum Bushvelder reported on how seven water meters were stolen in Kelly Street, extension 6, in the span of just two weeks. The municipality, which pleaded with residents and scrap metal dealers to report such criminal activities so that syndicates operating in the areas could be brought to book, confirmed that more than 30 water meters had been stolen in various parts of Northam at that time. Apart from costing the TLM a pretty penny, the sight of precious potable water going down the drain left many residents concerned. As a long-term measure aimed at addressing the challenges faced by residents being affected by these crimes, the municipality has been installing plastic water meters.

Water meter thieves are creating problems in Northam.

Posduifklub kampioen!

Thabazimbi – Die jaar 2020 het stil afgesluit vir Thabazimbi Posduifklub, maar die nuwe wedvlugseisoen het met groot entoesiasme afgeskop. Een van die hoogtepunte vir elke wedvlugseisoen is die kroning van die klubkampioen. Die goeie tradisie leef voort en ‘n hartlike gelukwensing kom Rassie Erasmus toe, wat met die eerste prys vir 2020 weggestap het. Rassie het in 1972 saam met sy pa in Uitenhage begin duiwe vlieg. In 1990 het hy alleen sy eie hok behartig, en na vyf jaar se vlieg van Theunissen na Virginia verhuis. Daar het hy met groot sukses aan wedvlugduiwesport deelgeneem. In 2007 het hy sy wortels geanker in Thabazimbi en twee jaar later weer hier aan duiwesport begin deelneem. Sy duif N1 17-1642517 is beslis sy trots. Dit is een van sy sewe ingevoerde Harco Poelman duiwe vanuit Nederland. Hierdie betrokke duif se kinders het vir hom al gereeld ‘n wen gevlieg wat ‘n duidelike teken is at hulle goed aangepas het in die Bosveld.

Sonder om groot geheime uit die mou te laat, sê die 2020 kampioen slegs dat hy en sy duiwe ‘n besondere band het. Vir hom is niks te duur of te veel moeite as dit by sy duiwe kom nie. In sy woorde: “My duiwe voel my teenwoordigheid en ons is een span. Duiwe is wat ek is, en daarsonder sal ek baie ongelukkig wees.” Terloops – Rassie het ook laas jaar 9e in die SIIM (Sentraal Limpopo) Unie geëindig, wat ‘n besondere prestasies is. Baie geluk AD Erasmus en Seun!

Rassie Erasmus se trots, duif N1 17-1642517.

No, there is nothing that I have a debilitating fear of. Heights, spiders all the usual stuff... bring it on!

No, I am not afraid of anything... well at least not anything irrational.

Did you know?

Humans are bioluminescent and glow in the dark, but the light that we emit is 1,000 times weaker than the lowest point in the luminance range that can be detected by the human eye. How cool is that?!

ISAIAH 40

10Behold, the Lord God shall come with a strong hand, And His arm shall rule for Him; Behold, His reward is with Him, And His work before Him. 11He will feed His flock like a shepherd; He will gather the lambs with His arm, And carry them in His bosom, And gently lead those who are with young.12Who has measured the waters in the hollow of His hand, Measured heaven with a span And calculated the dust of the earth in a measure? Weighed the mountains in scales And the hills in a balance? 13Who has directed the Spirit of the Lord, Or as His counselor has taught Him? 14With whom did He take counsel, and who instructed Him, And taught Him in the path of justice? Who taught Him knowledge, And showed Him the way of understanding? 15Behold, the nations are as a drop in a bucket, And are counted as the small dust on the scales; Look, He lifts up the isles as a very little thing. 16And Lebanon is not sufficient to burn, Nor its beasts sufficient for a burnt offering. 17All nations before Him are as nothing, And they are counted by Him less than nothing and worthless. 18To whom then will you liken God? Or what likeness will you compare to Him?

Carling Currie Cup rugby

Pumas vs Lions
In die Mbombela Stadium verras die Pumas en klop die Leeus in 'n wille katgeveg met 39-10. Die Pumas se hardebaarde was net te veel vir die katjies van Jo'burg. Die Leeus se swak dissipline het ook bygedra tot hul pakslae. Jimmy Stonehouse sê die Pumas gaan beslis hard brul hierdie seisoen. Die Pumas speel Vrydag om 19:00 teen die Bulle in Pretoria.

Bulls vs WP
Op Loftus gryp WP die kans aan om in die afwesigheid van die Bulle se uitsoekspan die jong outjies behoorlik te boelie ou grote. Die Blou Bul span wat Saterdag uitgedraf het, was die jongste gemiddelde ouderdom span wat nog in 'n Curriebeker game gespeel het... 21 debutante! Die Kapenaars moet weet in die tweede rondte gaan dit 'n koei van 'n ander kleur wees as die ou hande weer in die Curriebeker span terug is. Die nuweling haker van WP, JJ Kotze, het seker nie Saterdaggaand deurgeslaap nie. Hierdie fris jongman het in sy debuut game nie minder as vier drieë gedruk nie! Dit is beslis 'n rekord in SA ruggas. Dan is daar 'n nuwe ster op die horison. Evan Roos wat op agsteman uitgedraf het, was die hele veld vol en is ook beloon met 'n puik drie. Hoe die Haaie dié outjie laat gaan het, sal net hulle weet. Roos is nie net vinnig nie, maar is ook 'n dodelike verdediger. Springbok in wording!

Griekwas vs Sharks
In Kimberley wen die Haaie met 'n bonuspunt, maar die eindtelling van 30-16 in hulle guns vertel nie regtig die verhaal van die stryd nie. Die Griekwas was baie beter as wat die telbord gewys het. Vir die Haaie het hulle nuwe cappie en agsteman Phepsi Buthelezi, 'n droom debuut gehad. Hy lei nie net sy span tot 'n oorwinning nie, maar speel self kookwater ruggas. Die Griekwas speel Saterdag tuis teen die Cheetahs.

Rainbow Beker Finaal

Benetton vs Bulls
Dewaldt Duvenage lei sy Benetton span tot 'n merkwaardige oorwinning van 35-8 oor die Bulls in Treviso. Kliniese ruggas deur die tuisspan het die besoekers verward laat voorkom. Die Benetton se haker, Corniel Els, het die Bulle voorlans goed verniel. Hy was 'n derduiwel en is ook beloon met 'n puik drie. 'n Tweede drie van Els is ongelukkig nie toegeken nie.

Els was nog tot onlangs 'n Pretorianer, jy sien... Die Bulle se losskakel, Chris Smith, het dalk met die ophardloopslag teen 'n paal vasgehardloop en sy oogbank gestamp, wat potblou vertoon het. Want ai ou grote, die mannetjie speel maande lank goeie ruggas maar was ongelukkig in hierdie belangrike game heeltemal die kluts kwyt. Benetton wat nie eers regtig die beste klub in Europa is nie, het hierdie oorwinning verdien. Op die dag se spel was hulle eenvoudig in alle afdelings baas.

• Daar is bekend gemaak dat daar 'n nuwe reeks in September sal afskop... naamlik die United Rugby Championship. Suid Afrika se vier spanne wat gaan deelneem sal beslis nou notisie geneem het dat die Noordelike halfrond spanne nie sussies is nie!

Super Rugby Trans Tasman Finaal

In Auckland wen die Blues vir die eerste keer in agtien jaar weer silwerware. In 'n klipharde NZ derby klop die Blues die Highlanders met 23-15.

Die wedstryd was 'n tipiese eindstryd waar dit eerder oor die wen gegaan het, en nie om aanskoulike bonuspunt ruggas te jol nie. Maar die ruggas op die dag was steeds uit die boonste rakke. Met twaalf minute se speeltyd oor was die Highlanders 15-13 voor. Maar die laaste tien minute het die Blues die bal skielik wyd begin speel en teken tien punte aan. Ses spelers van die Blues is in die All Blacks opgeneem. Een speler wat verdien om die Kiwi jersey oor sy kop te trek, is die yster flank Dalton Papalii. Hierdie jong man kan in die spore van Richie McCaw loop.

Die All Blacks het ook hulle groep aangewys vir een toets teen Tonga, gevolg deur twee toetse teen Fidji. Die Crusader staatmaker slot, Sam Whitelock, is aangewys as die nuwe All Black cappie.

Nag ou grote...

It has come to the attention of Thabazimbi Local Municipality that continuous unauthorised erection of structures and/or buildings is being carried out by developers and community members within the municipal jurisdiction without prior approval of the local authority.

The public is made aware that in terms of the national building regulations and building standards act no. 103 of 1977 (as amended), any person erecting any building in contravention of the provisions of the act is guilty of an offence and liable for conviction.

Thabazimbi Local Municipality therefore urges all local residents with illegal buildings to submit as-built for existing structures; and who are intending to erect structures (this includes the alteration, conversion, extension, re-erection subdivision of or addition to, or repair of any part of the structural system of any building) to submit building plans for approval prior to erection.

Any person who contravenes or fails to comply with provisions of the act or any notice issued thereunder shall be guilty of the offence and the matter being referred for elevated enforcement action.

For enquiries: visit the building control office at 7 Rietbok street, Thabazimbi, and Northam Lapa Offices (Tuesdays and Thursdays) OR call Ms. Mapitsi Masoga on 083 507 0640 Or Ms Phyllia Mutele on 076 894 2717 OR Mr S Motshoane on 079 877 6193 from 07H30 to 16H30.

AdBlue® is used in diesel cars to reduce emissions by up to 80%, & if your AdBlue® tank is empty, your car won't start, so it's best to plan ahead. Topping up your AdBlue® can be difficult, as you need the right kind of bottle. Redex AdBlue's® unique bottle has a secure opening & locking system so you don't need to free pour it, preventing nasty spillages & odours. The bottle can be stored safely in your boot without risk of leaking so you can use it any time you start running low. Easy pour solution Reduces NOX emissions by up to 80% Keep in the boot to top up ISO22241-1 compliant Don't run out or your car won't start! 5L
