The cruel side of fireworks

for a loving home.

Thabazimbi – The festive season is upon us and while we all look forward to having fun with our loved ones and friends and celebrating the New Year's Day, most animals spend Old Year's Eve in fear.

Says Medivet Dierekliniek vet Dr Jamiela Barnard: "During the festive season the number of pets that get injured, lost and/or hit by cars increase dramatically. We plead with the community to take the animals into consideration and to please refrain from using fireworks."

For Thabazimbi Animal Rescue (TAR), 31 December and 1 January are some of their busiest days of the year. "It is very important to give the address when reporting suspected illegal fireworks. It is not only our pets that are affected but the wildlife around us as well. They get scared and leave their babies or run into wires. We will involve the police in all matters that are reported," said TAR's Tanya Stone.

You can report fireworks at TAR on 084 885 6487, Thabazimbi Police Station on 014 777 3500 or Northam Police Station on 014 784 4100.

Police festive season safety tips

Whether you are going away for the holidays or staying at home, basic safety tips and knowing how to react during an emergency situation can save you and your loved ones from danger. The South African Police Service (SAPS) advises people to be vigilant during the festive season as criminals are always on the prowl for their next victim.

Safety at the ATM

- Do not ask for help from strangers.
- Do not display money in public.
- Keep your personal belongings such as your handbag and wallet safe.

When confronted by criminals

- Comply, remain calm and do not argue with crime perpetrators.
- Do not make sudden gestures.
- Avoid eye contact but try to remember what the perpetrator looks like by identifying and remembering special features.
- Try to get away safely from the area as quickly as possible.

Safety tips while driving

- Avoid being alone in a vehicle when travelling at night.
- Do not stop around hijacking spots or at any secluded area.
- Always be alert when driving. If you suspect that you are being followed by a suspicious vehicle, drive to the nearest police station.

To report crime, contact Crime Stop 08600 10111 or the SAPS emergency number 10111.

The Dreyers' bakkie rolled several times before coming to a standstill.

The wheel that was rolled onto the road.

Random bouncing tyre crashes into elderly couple's car

Leeupoort – Johan and Wilma Dreyer narrowly escaped death on Wednesday 1 December as a tyre appeared out of the blue and bounced and rolled their way on the Brits Road on their way to Leeupoort. Wilma tried everything to avoid colliding with the tyre but it crashed through their windshield, causing their bakkie to overturn several times.

The couple, both in their sixties live in Leeupoort and had to travel to Brits for the day to have Wilma's phone repaired. They just received their SASSA money and decided to also buy groceries while they were there.

It was already dark when the incident took place about 50km from Thabazimbi near Mamba Cement. Wilma told Platinum Bushvelder: "As the bakkie was rolling, I just prayed. It was all I could do! When the bakkie finally came to a halt, I asked Johan if he was alright – and then the bakkie overturned again! It was the worst experience of my life!"

When the bakkie finally came to a complete standstill, Johan was halfway through his window with the bakkie lying on top of him.

"In pain, I held onto Johan, and never stopped praying," Wilma said and added: "God answered my prayers. He sent two youngsters to come to our aid."

Marieta Kruger and Charl Visagie helped Wilma from the wreck and called for emergency assistance.

Passer-by truck drivers also pulled over to aid the Dreyers. They managed to lift the bakkie from Johan. Marieta and Charl stayed with the couple, and prayed with them, until help arrived. Johan sustained one cracked and five broken ribs. He was discharged from hospital on 6 December.

The youngsters took Wilma home and made sure her loved ones were informed.

Said Wilma: "We would like to thank God for protecting us and sending Charl, Marieta and the truck drivers on our road. We will never forget it!"

No one knows where the tyre came from but they suspect that it might have been someone trying to force them off the road to either hijack or rob them.

Although the 'culprits' did not succeed, the Dreyers still suffered a great loss. All the food that they bought, as well as the SASSA money that was left over got lost during the crash. "Everything was flying everywhere and with the trauma and because it was dark, we couldn't find it," Wilma said.

There are also medical bills that need to be paid. Even though their children are carrying most of the cost, hospitalisation is not cheap.

If you would like to donate towards their medical expenses you can contact their daughter Chantal Kock on 076 518 8522.

Pastor drowns while preparing for baptism

Thabazimbi – A pastor drowned after he was swept away by a strong current as he was preparing to conduct a baptism service in the Krokodil River. The incident occurred on Saturday 11 December at around 13:00 soon after the pastor went into the river to test the depth of the water. Efforts by personnel from Thaba Fire and Rescue in partnership with Thabazimbi Community Policing Forum to locate the body of the man were unsuccessful. "On Sunday, his body was seen at Bloubrug. A search was also conducted at the Elandskuil bridge, but to no avail," Pierre Loots from Thaba Fire and Rescue told Platinum Bushvelder.

THE CRUEL SIDE OF FIREWORKS

Thabazimbi – The festive season is upon us and while we all look forward to having fun with our loved ones and friends and celebrating the New Year's Day, most animals spent Old Year's Eve in fear. Says Medivet Direklyniek vet Dr Jamiela Barnard: "During the festive season the number of pets that get injured, lost and/or hit by cars increase dramatically. We plead with the community to take the animals into consideration and to please refrain from using fireworks." For Thabazimbi Animal Rescue (TAR), 31 December and 1 January are some of their busiest days of the year. "It is very important to give the address when reporting suspected illegal fireworks. It is not only our pets that are affected but the wildlife around us as well. They get scared and leave their babies or run into wires. We will involve the police in all matters that are reported," said TAR's Tanya Stone. You can report fireworks at TAR on 084 885 6487, Thabazimbi Police Station on 014 777 3500 or Northam Police Station on 014 784 4100.

According to Specialist Investigators' Mike Bolhuis, the noise of fireworks leads many dogs to perceive it as a threat and triggers a fight or flight response. Other signs of anxiety are barking, restlessness, panting, pacing and whining. Frightened cats appear startled, run away or hide away. Other signs cats might show are either toileting in the house or excessive grooming. It is breeding season for many species of birds and the noise may startle mother birds off their nests – leaving the eggs unprotected and exposed.

Fireworks and the law:

- The use of fireworks in South Africa is regulated by by-laws under the Explosives Act of 1956.
- This means that you need to check in with your local authorities to ensure that there are no by-laws that apply in your city or town.
- One may not light or ignite fireworks in a place where animals are present (R1,000 fine). This includes your own home.
- Fireworks may not be set off in any public place. This includes in parks, on the pavement or on streets.
- Shopping malls, restaurants, liquor stores and clothing retailers are also off-limits.
- Fireworks may not be sold by street vendors, hawkers or at any informal open-air facilities.
- Anyone who wishes to sell fireworks must have a valid licence, which is issued by the chief inspector of the Department of Explosives.
- It is illegal to detonate fireworks within 200 metres of a hospital, clinic, petrol station, old-age home, nursing home, or animal welfare organisation or institution.
- No one under the age of 16 is allowed to purchase or set off fireworks.
- It is unlawful for any person to point or direct a firework at another person, animal, building or motor vehicle.

- No person or organisation is allowed to present fireworks displays unless formally authorised to do so by the Council (at least 14 days' notice).
- Authorisation is also required from the Civil Aviation Authority and the Chief Inspector of Explosives.
- A pyrotechnician and SA Police Services explosives expert must be present at all times.
- Failure to comply with any of the above could result in a hefty fine or even jail time.

A few tips shared by Mike Bolhuis

- Microchip your pets.
- If need be – medicate your pets with anti-anxiety medication, but, consult with your veterinarian first.
- Create a safe space for your pets. Turn off other noise in this space as a TV or radio will only exacerbate the problem.
- Keep the space locked and ensure that the pets are not able to escape but also, they should not be able to hurt themselves by breaking through a window or jumping over something when they panic.
- Close windows and curtains to muffle the sound of fireworks.
- Specialised vests, wraps or coats can be bought, it is said that such pressure garments have a calming effect on pets.

Thabazimbi – Thabazimbi Local Municipality (TLM) mayor Tokkie Swanepoel described South African Traditional Music Awards (SATMA) winner Geoff Kenosi’s award as an inspiration to the community. Kenosi – or Ka-Shima as he is known in music circles – walked away with a SATMA award in the best traditional acapella music category. The Thabazimbi-born artist’s hit song “Uchoma” won the hearts of the judges during the awards ceremony, held on Saturday 27 November in Mpumalanga.

“We are proud as the people of Thabazimbi that one of our own is the winner of a SATMA award,” mayor Swanepoel said, in a glowing tribute to the artist. “I wish to thank all those who voted for and supported him.” Ka-Shima took to music as a duck to water at a young age. In the 1980s he joined local band Tilt as a backing vocalist and ever since, his career continued to develop from strength to strength. His performances with Jorago and Lentswe bands attracted television publicity and were featured on the popular TV2 and TV3 channels in the 80s.

A few years later Ka- Shima moved to Johannesburg where he joined a number of bands around the city as well as in Soweto. In 1997 he was part of Cheek to Cheek – a very poplar group which thrived under the leadership of Madoda Malotana.

“It is this band that introduced me to the professional music scene,” Kenosi said. “The likes of Blacky Sibisi as well as musicians from Brenda Fassie’s band, Step-Ahead, was a positive influence on my career.

“My one-on-one sessions with Sibisi helped me develop into the singer I am today,” Kenosi adds.

The SATMA winner also worked with Rhythm Kingz – a Rustenburg-based jazz band led by Thapelo Deble. A diversified artist, Ka-shima has also shared the stage with Thebe, Mahoota, Vetkoek, Dikakapa, Culture Spear, Solly Moholo and Jaziel Brothers. He also performs at corporate functions and concerts whilst promoting his current album ‘Sounds of an African Child’.

His album is already receiving airplay on various radio stations such as Motsweding FM, Thetha FM, Mafikeng FM and Mafisa FM amongst others.

“I thank you, the people of Thabazimbi, for voting for me, as well as the Regorogile Taxi Association for promoting my campaign,” concluded Ka-Shima.

Catch a glimpse of Ka-Shima’s moment of glory at 21:00 on Sunday 19 December during a repeat of the SATMA awards broadcast on SABC 1.

Warning: Avoid the Elandskuil road bridge

Setaria – Part of the Elandskuil road bridge crossing the Crocodile River near Setaria collapsed in August 2020. With the recent flash floods coming downstream, additional structural damage occurred. Time and again, 4x4s and vehicles alike dare the drive over the Crocodile River where parts of the bridge is still standing. However, with water levels rising at this stage, this a very dangerous act. This stern warning was issued after two incidents were reported on Saturday 11 December. Vehicles, one with a trailer, narrowly avoided plunging into the river trying to cross the bridge. The strong current could have swept them away.

- Thabazimbi Crisis Control would like to request the community to assist with a tractor to enable them to create a barrier preventing people from crossing until the bridge has been repaired.

A WORD FROM OUR MAYOR

SEASON’S GREETINGS

We are in the last month of what has been a second and very difficult year for the entire world due to Covid-19. The coronavirus pandemic has claimed many lives and continues to do so. It has not been business as usual in our municipality, but we continue our operations. This we did with limitations in human and financial resources, all imposed by the new normal.

Many people in our communities have lost their jobs due to the outbreak of the deadly Covid-19 since March 2020.

In wishing you a Merry Christmas, I must remind you that South Africa is in the fourth wave of Covid-19 with the Omicron variant. It necessitates immediate behavioural change from all citizens.

As you will be re-united with your loved ones during the festive time, please play your part. We all need to work together to fight this dangerous Covid-19 wave. Let’s adhere to health protocols as we prepare for a different type of festive season. Refrain from attending super spreader events (large gatherings).

Another enemy we need to fight during this season is alcohol and substance abuse. The adverse effects of this behaviour hampers our ability to observe health protocols. At the same time, alcohol and substance abuse have also been identified as drivers of gender-based violence – another scourge we’re dealing with. Again remember, there are more painful things than wearing a mask, such as the loss of a loved one – so wear a mask, wash your hands and practice social distancing.

On behalf of the councillors and the entire staff of the Thabazimbi Local Municipality, I would like to wish you all a merry Christmas, happy holidays and a fantastic New Year.

Here’s to you and 2022!

Mayor Tokkie Swanepoel
Thabazimbi Local Municipality

Have your say / Sê jou sê

Do you think SA’s electricity crisis is going to be solved in the next five years?

Vandalism, cable theft, coal shortage and load shedding... dark days for South Africa. The questions on everyone’s lips are, what will it take to keep the lights on and how long will it take to be implemented?

Yes, Covid-19 has delayed all the plans for improvements, but I have hope for the future.

Ofentse Makgae

No, it has been a problem for so long that five years is not nearly enough to fix everything.

Thabazimbi – Thabazimbi Fire and Rescue het 11 brandblussers installeer by die AGS Kerk Thabazimbi op Donderdag 9 Desember.

“Ons is nie net daar vir noodgevalle nie, ons is ook toegewy om ‘n verskil te maak in die gemeenskap deur beveiliging,” aldus Thabazimbi Fire and Rescue direkteur Pierre Loots. Brandblussers speel ‘n belangrike rol in enige brandbeskermingsplan in enige omgewing. Dit help om ‘n brand wat ontstaan te blus en om katastrofiese skade aan eiendom en selfs lewensverlies te voorkom.

PROVERBS 30 VERSE 1 -11

¹The words of Agur the son of Jakeh, his utterance. This man declared to Ithiel - to Ithiel and Ucal: ²Surely I am more stupid than any man, And do not have the understanding of a man.³I neither learned wisdom Nor have knowledge of the Holy One. ⁴Who has ascended into heaven, or descended? Who has gathered the wind in His fists? Who has bound the waters in a garment? Who has established all the ends of the earth? What is His name, and what is His Son's name, If you know? ⁵Every word of God is pure; He is a shield to those who put their trust in Him. ⁶Do not add to His words, Lest He rebuke you, and you be found a liar. ⁷Two things I request of You (Deprive me not before I die): ⁸Remove falsehood and lies far from me; Give me neither poverty nor riches - Feed me with the food allotted to me; ⁹Lest I be full and deny You, And say, "Who is the LORD?" Or lest I be poor and steal, And profane the name of my God. ¹⁰Do not malign a servant to his master, Lest he curse you, and you be found guilty. ¹¹There is a generation that curses its father, And does not bless its mother.

Do you think a child psychologist will do a better job at raising your child than you?

A child psychologist deals with all manner of children and adolescents' difficulties. Therapy for children and adolescents can help youngsters take accountability for their actions, develop and test new solutions to challenges, learn new social skills, strengthen family relationships, work through past trauma and suffering, and particularly develop an improved understanding of feelings and how to express and cope with them in an appropriate manner.

Make yourself heard by sending an email to news@platinumbushvelder.co.za or a WhatsApp to 081 579 7000 with the following information before 17:00 on Tuesday 11 January 2022:

YOUR FRIDAY FUN FACT

Did you know?

The current Twitter logo is designed in the form of a fluttering hummingbird. Although Twitter was launched in 2006, many people don't know that its logo's bird has a name; he is called Larry T Bird. The inspiration behind the name was Larry Bird, the basketball legend.

Kos en kuier!

Thabazimbi – SAVF Thabazimbi vrywilligers het op Saterdag 4 Desember die oggend saam die senior burgers van Bosveld Oord en Sonskyn Oord spandeer. Almal is bederf met 'n lekker gekookte ete en het geskenkies ontvang. SAVF Thabazimbi wil graag baie dankie sê aan die Matlabas dames vir die pragtige geskenke, die Voortrekker spannetjie vir die uitdeel van die geskenke en Kuikenden Kleuterskool vir die pragtige servetringe. Aan die NG Kerk wil hul dankie sê vir die gebruik van hulle perseel. 'n Spesiale dankie ook aan diegene wat gehelp het om skottelgoed te was.

Dit was 'n oggend van bederf en samesyn.

DEAR READER,

What a year! But by God's grace we have survived 2021, and some of us even thrived. With the curtain closing on 2021, I don't know of a single person who doesn't wish the year to end. We all look forward to kicking off our shoes and spending some quality time with our loved ones. The past year has proved to me, that there is no better time than 'now' to make the changes in your life that needs to be made. No matter how much input you have given on certain projects, or how much time you have spent trying to straighten what is crooked, get out of situations you do not belong in, at the drop of a hat. Life is too short and too precious, to let a minute go by - unloved or unloved. Enjoy the small miracles of life and cherish your loved ones. Covid-19 and its regulations might have knocked us around and changed our everyday lives, but you can learn how to survive and thrive during these times. Pat yourself on the back, you have made it so far. Rise above your circumstances and do not let life pass you by. There is also much joy in giving and supporting others whether in a personal or financial matter. Never stop making new year's resolutions, and if you fail in the first week of January, dust yourself down and try again or adjust your resolution to better match your circumstances. A big thank you to all our supporters, readers and clients. Thank you for keeping us on our toes, pushing us to better ourselves and for being part of our stories. May God keep you safe over this festive season.

Dear Keyboard Warrior,

Beware! The digital age has spawned a new phenomenon known as the KEYBOARD WARRIOR. A keyboard warrior is a person who makes abusive or aggressive posts on the internet, typically one who conceals their true identity. Anyone can become a victim of a keyboard warrior's public abuse, but the keyboard warrior usually targets well-known, high-profile figures. Remember, anything you post on the internet or social media, is forever. Several people have lost their jobs because they went on a rant on social media. Many others don't get hired... if a prospective boss does a search on you on the net... what will they find?

PRESERVING A CRIME SCENE

SA – In most of us, there is a genuine caring for our fellow human beings, wanting to help and assist people in times of need. However, it often happens that crime scenes are contaminated by sincere, caring people. This is not done on purpose, but due to a lack of knowledge. However, the clock cannot be turned back to undo the damage. "The contamination of a crime scene is 90% of our nation's problem," said special investigator Mike Bolhuis. Therefore, it is necessary to familiarise yourself with how to preserve a crime scene and what to do if you come upon a crime scene.

What to do if no one is in distress at a possible crime scene?

An example of this is finding stolen goods in a field. You can call for help and ensure that no one goes to the scene until the help you despatched has arrived. What people often don't realise is that when your footprints, DNA or vehicle's tracks are found at a scene you are a suspect until it can be proven otherwise.

How to call for help?

National Crime Assist (NCA) members can press the Namola SOS button for assistance. In doing so, you will simultaneously notify police and NCA Response to assist you and should further services be required, Namola and NCA will be there to dispatch for you.

If someone is in distress at a possible crime scene?

Only if you suspect that there is someone in distress at the scene and you notice no danger by observation, can you carefully enter the scene to assist the person/persons in need. Make sure which route you take to investigate, take a video or photos, to hand over to police, to document your entry thereby. If a second person moves in with you, the second person must follow in the first person's footsteps. See to it that emergency service personnel also follow this route. If possible, it is better if the second person rather stays behind and prevent others from entering the scene. He or she may also ensure that vehicles park far enough from the scene, that they park orderly and do not block the road. Emergency Services and police need to have access to get close to the scene. Once you have reached the person in need of assistance, you can assist that person until emergency services arrive. You'll then pass on the necessary information of the situation to emergency services and a detailed statement to police as well as the video or photos you have documented. You handover the crime scene to the police. Would you be able to live with yourself if your contamination of a crime scene caused an attacker not to be prosecuted? Would you be willing to explain this to the victim?

Walking against drug abuse and GBV

Thabazimbi – Raymond Wolfaardt en Ananda Pieterse is onderskeidelik aangewys as penkoppe en drawwertjies, en verkenner jeugleier, vir Thabazimbi se 2022 Voortrekkerspan. Veldkornet Danie Naude wens hulle hartlik geluk met hul prestasies en moedig ander aan om deel te word van die Thabazimbi Voortrekkers. Hierdie Voortrekker inisiatiewe gee mens die geleentheid om kinders te help vorm om die soort Christen Afrikaner te word op wie ons en hulle later self trots kan wees. Die jongklomp kry ook die geleentheid om mensgerigte en veldvaardighede aan te leer. Saam ander Voortrekkers, geniet oud en jonk die bosveld en kameraadskap, om in God se natuur sy liefde en almagtigheid te ervaar en om die ervaringe te gebruik as boustene vir sy Voortrekker- en lewensloopbaan. Indien jy wil deel wees, kontak Danie op 082 738 6737 vir meer inligting.

Raymond en Ananda.

Thabazimbi – A walk to raise awareness against drug abuse and gender-based violence (GBV) received overwhelming support from the Thabazimbi community. On Saturday 11 December community members gathered at the New Way Christian Church at 10:00 for an awareness walk that turned out to be a resounding success. The initiative was led by SAVF Thabazimbi volunteers in partnership with The Lighthouse Inc Friends to Addicts. SAVF Thabazimbi is extremely grateful to everyone who joined in the march, especially the mayor – councillor Tokkie Swanepoel – who led by example by being part of the initiative. Special mention also goes to Frik Erasmus for the motorcycles that helped to regulate traffic during the march. Get ready for a similar initiative next year!

For information contact Annamarie Oosthuizen at 079 355 8502.

Sluit 2021 af met donasie

Thabazimbi – Die Hoërskool Frikkie Meyer Graad 12 groep het na hul laaste eksamenvraestel op 1 Desember, hul skoolklere geskenk aan die skool se klerebank. Wat 'n mooi gebaar! Mag jul toekoms blink, geseënd en suksesvol wees!

Nou is ons klaar!
