A friendship that will melt your heart

The troop with their 'adopted' companion.

Thabazimbi – There is something about unlikely animal friendships that tug at the heartstrings. A community member recently shared the story of a strange but beautiful relationship between a troop of baboons and their adopted dog, with the Platinum Bushvelder.

For a few months now, the baboons rummage through garbage and share their loot with a dog they have adopted about a year ago.

There has even been a sighting where one of the baboons grabbed the dog, put it under its arm and kept it safe while climbing up to the roof of the old Kumba building. You would think that the dog would be terrified, but it apparently remained completely calm, almost as if it was used to it. When feeling threatened, the baboons gather around the dog as if to protect it – even against other baboon troops. The troop usually shows up on Tuesdays or 'garbage day' in Jourdan Street, near Advanced College and the old Kumba building. What a sight to behold. The dog clearly feels comfortable and interacts with his baboon family.

Platinum Bushvelder spoke to a few local professionals.

Marakele National Park conservation manager Tshifhiwa Mauda was surprised: "I have seen a lion trying to protect a buck, but I've never seen anything like this. A baboon's natural instinct should be to attack the dog."

Medivet Dierekliniek owner and vet Louis Greef said that it's not normal behaviour for baboons and advises that the dog be removed for its own safety as it could easily be attacked or fall to its death.

However, Kransberg Dierekliniek's vet Mari Naude says that this is not the first time she has heard about a baboon/dog family: "Baboons do adopt dogs. They feed and groom them but usually adopt dogs as puppies. The dogs then migrate with the pack."

Despite some warnings several community members are chuffed about the baboon/dog family. "The baboons take better care of the dog than some humans would. I understand the dangers, but it just breaks my heart to think that the dog might have to be removed or placed in a cage at an overcrowded shelter, hoping to be adopted someday."

While doing research for this article, Platinum Bushvelder came across a video where baboons kidnapped a puppy. It looked like it treated the puppy very harshly during the kidnapping. The way the baboons treated the puppy was extremely upsetting to people, but the baboons soon accepted the puppy into the troop, where it was groomed, fed and protected. Below the article a reader commented: "It's hard to watch, but it's life... And the baboon doesn't know any better, humans do."

PROVERBS 16 VERSE 1 - 12

¹The preparations of the heart belong to man, But the answer of the tongue is from the LORD. ²All the ways of a man are pure in his own eyes, But the LORD weighs the spirits. ³Commit your works to the LORD, And your thoughts will be established. ⁴The LORD has made all for Himself, Yes, even the wicked for the day of doom. ⁵Everyone proud in heart is an abomination to the LORD; Though they join forces, none will go unpunished. ⁶In mercy and truth Atonement is provided for iniquity; And by the fear of the LORD one departs from evil. ⁷When a man's ways please the LORD, He makes even his enemies to be at peace with him. ⁸Better is a little with righteousness, Than vast revenues without justice. ⁹A man's heart plans his way, But the LORD directs his steps. ¹⁰Divination is on the lips of the king; His mouth must not transgress in judgment. ¹¹Honest weights and scales are the LORD's; All the weights in the bag are His work. ¹²It is an abomination for kings to commit wickedness, Thabazimbi Local Municipality councillor David Gouveia at one of the various sites where rubbish is dumped on the sidewalks of Northam.

A smelly start to 2022

Northam – The Northam streets have become a sore eye for the community. Platinum Bushvelder spoke to Thabazimbi Local Municipality (TLM) councillor David Gouveia on Tuesday 11 January regarding the state of Northam and the constant illegal dumping.

• While conducting the interview, unashamed, a man came up and dumped a box of garbage right behind Gouveia – unaware of the interview on the very illegal act he was committing!

When confronted, he pointed to the garbage pile and said that he didn't know that you are not supposed to dump your garbage on the side of the road. If you look at the current state of Northam, it's not difficult to see where the confusion came in...

Frustrated with the smelly, hazardous and unsafe state of illegal dumping, Gouveia said the municipality is doing its best to clean up the streets, but that their effort is wasted if the community doesn't get their act together.

• He noted that the municipality plans to enforce municipal bylaws. Hefty fines will be issued to people who dump their rubbish illegally.

In the meantime, they are also working on getting more skips so that there are more dumping points in Northam, but this will only be a temporary solution.

"I would like to urge the community to become part of the Northam Rate Payers Association where we aim to make Northam a town that we can be proud of."

HOUSEBREAKING ON THE INCREASE

Thabazimbi – With so many community members on holiday over the festive period, it was easy pickings for criminals who looted homes.

According to police spokesperson constable Titus Khumalo, from 1 December 2021 to 12 January 2022... 24 home burglaries were reported in Thabazimbi.

"If you intend on going away for a while and you trust your neighbours, let them know you will be gone so that they can be on the lookout for suspicious activity. I also urge the community to get involved with our local CPF so that the streets can be patrolled regularly to help keep criminal elements at bay," Khumalo said.

CATTLE RAIDED ON SWARTKLIP FARM

Swartklip/ Rustenburg – Apparently, about 80% of all livestock theft in South Africa involves some form of organised crime. It costs the country billions of rand each year, is detrimental to our economy and has crippled many a farmer. What is a farmer to do if he loses R500,000 worth of livestock? Not to mention the hard work, love and time that went into their breeding and upkeep.

Late on Sunday 9 January or early on Monday morning, 10 January, stock thieves gained access to the Kameelhoek farm located next to a mine in Swartklip. Twenty calves aged 2-6 months, and nine cows were stolen.

Gustav du Toit breeds pedigree Simmentalers. His cattle, which are all registered, were marked with yellow ear-tags and branded BH, GH, and CE – except for the really young calves. He lost an estimated R500,000 worth of livestock. Local authorities, community crime fighters and trackers were summoned to assist with the search. Tracks were followed to an informal settlement behind the mine, in Spitskop, but to no avail. No vehicle tracks could be found. A helicopter was also used in the search.

A farmhand discovered the cut fence and as word of the stolen livestock spread on social media, two neighbouring farmers also reported that their fences were cut.

Gustav du Toit, from Rustenburg, opened a case at the Northam police station. He also informed auction houses. Besides his cattle, Gustav has not yet determined if any of his game is missing. In an interview with Gustav's mother, Elsabe Heuer said: "Over the past five years, we poured our blood, sweat and tears into our farm. It hurts to hear the cows calling for their calves."

Cows are remarkable creatures. To most people, they represent nothing but food products, but it turns out, they love being mothers and have remarkable maternal instincts. Research show that cattle are intelligent animals with deep cognitive and emotional lives.

If you have any information that can help track the stolen livestock, please contact:

- Gustav Senior: 083 519 1992
- Gustav Junior: 072 509 7466
- Elsabe Heuer: 082 773 7196

Du Toit's Simmentalers were marked with yellow ear-tags and branded BH, GH, and CE.

JP Potgieter

Back to school!

It was a huff and a puff to get all the learners back together again, but Wednesday 12 January marked the return of thousands of learners to their school desks. Due to Covid-19 restrictions, only five (5) inland provinces will be receiving learners from Grade R to Grade 12. The five provinces include the Free State, Gauteng, Limpopo, Mpumalanga, and the North West. Learners from the four (4) coastal provinces – Eastern Cape, KwaZulu-Natal, Northern Cape and the Western Cape, will go back to school only next week. In Gauteng, there are still learners who are yet to be placed in schools... On 11 January, Minister of Basic Education, Angie Motshekga, confirmed that no Covid-19 vaccines will be administered to learners at schools – at this time.

Have your say / Sê jou sê

Do you think a child psychologist will do a better job at raising your child than you?

Child psychologists assess and treat children. They help children cope with stresses like divorce, death, and family or school transitions. Your child might benefit from seeing a therapist if they need emotional support and someone to talk to about their feelings.

No, a psychologist can't give your child the same love and care that you are able to give.

Henk Havenga

No! No one can take care of my child better than me, no one will be able to provide them with their emotional needs – like unconditional love – like I do.

POLL

Do you think standardised testing is the most effective way to judge learning?

Every child is different, but they all take the same tests. Through standardised testing we gain a valuable standard used to check the quality of our curriculum and it helps pinpoint areas for improvement. But different children have different talents...

Make yourself heard by sending an email to news@platinumbushvelder.co.za or a WhatsApp to 081 579 7000 with the following information before 17:00 on Tuesday 18 January 2022:

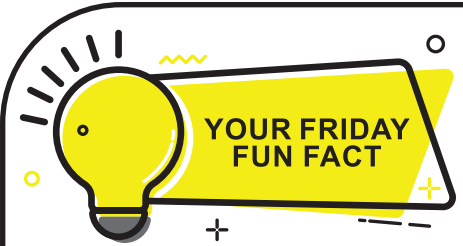

- Yes, I think standardised testing is the most effective way to judge learning.
- No, I don't think standardised testing is the most effective way to judge learning.
- The reason for your answer.
- A recent photo of yourself (optional) – that we can publish with your answer.
- Your contact details.
