The dodgy diamond dealer strikes again

Victim 11 is a local entrepreneur who registers vehicles and renews licence discs on behalf of paying customers. Mr. Scammer visited his shop to get a trailer, a Nissan Navara and a Volkswagen Polo registered on his name. Buying a trailer and two vehicles in one month is not something the average Joe can do, so Victim 11 assumed that Mr. Scammer was a man of means. He jokingly asked Mr. Scammer if he could come and work for him... and Mr. Scammer immediately made use of the opportunity to set his trap.

He apparently told Victim 11 that he is a diamond dealer. As with the other victims of this 'diamond dealer', he also flashed the documentation to confirm his legitimacy. Because Mr Scammer, from the word go, immediately felt a connection with Victim 11... as if they are old friends... he offered Victim 11 the chance to make some cash on the side. He would of course help him to get into the game.

Knowing nothing about the diamond industry and with all the paperwork looking legit, Victim 11 started off by investing R5,000. Mr Scammer soon returned, asking for another R1,500 to get the ball rolling... and don't forget the R1,000 for fuel.

Mr Serial Scammer did what he does best, he got the victim to part with his money. Nothing beats his experience and the effort he puts into gaining knowledge in his various fields of scams to make him look legit. Victim 11, like all the other victims told the Platinum

Weekly that Mr Serial Scammer was throwing names around of well-known people and he also shared a photo of him and a South African celebrity. He also claimed to have ties with the alleged underworld kingpin Nafiz Modack. When Victim 11 phoned Mr Scammer, a certain 'Jack' took the call, who informed him that Mr Serial Scammer sadly passed away. He did not take three days to return from his grave, the very next day, he was busy doing what he does best. Mr Serial Scammer has scammed several people in Rustenburg, Swartruggens, Boshhoek and surrounds and due to the success of his illicit venture, he is currently expanding his operations to Vanderbijlpark, Pretoria and Prieska.

Names have been withheld to protect the victims.

SERIAL SCAMMER

PART 5

Background

Rustenburg – Platinum Weekly was made aware of a man pretending to be a lodge owner in our area, so we set out to investigate. We ended up going down a rabbit hole of scams. The audacity of this serial scammer is mind boggling. We are placing only one or two of his scams (per week) in our newspapers. We already interviewed several of his victims.

This serial scammer is also extremely dangerous and armed. He was recorded online, taking out his gun and threatening to shoot a man who confronted him about his scams.

It almost plays out like a movie... except it's not. It's real life and it's real people who lost real money. It is a pity, however, that only some of his victims have opened criminal cases against him. In some of the cases his scams appear to be nothing more than a power play... a need to impress the ladies...

More and more victims are coming forward and Platinum Weekly aims to expose all of his scams in the weeks ahead. We hope to warn people about his modus operandi, so that they don't get caught up in his web of lies. Hopefully he will be brought to book soon so that his identity can be revealed.

To protect his victims, we will keep them anonymous. He operates all over the show. If some of these stories sound familiar to you, please let us know about it. Even if you were scammed a year or two ago, you can still report it at SAPS. We urge victims to go to their nearest police station to open a case. This dangerous man should be brought to book. If you missed part 4, you could read about it in Platinum Weekly's 29 April issue. Watch this space for part 6, where more of his scams will be exposed.

SOULFOOD

PSALM 14

Folly of the Godless, and God's Final Triumph To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

14 The fool has said in his heart,
"There is no God."
They are corrupt,
They have done abominable works,
There is none who does good.
2 The Lord looks down from heaven upon the children of men,
To see if there are any who understand, who seek God.
3 They have all turned aside,
They have together become corrupt;
There is none who does good,
No, not one.
4 Have all the workers of iniquity no knowledge,
Who eat up my people as they eat bread,
And do not call on the Lord?
5 There they are in great fear,
For God is with the generation of the righteous.
6 You shame the counsel of the poor,
But the Lord is his refuge.
7 Oh, that the salvation of Israel would come out of Zion!
When the Lord brings back the captivity of His people,
Let Jacob rejoice and Israel be glad.

NEW KING JAMES VERSION (NKJV)

LIFE BEHIND MASKS

SA – When the clock struck 12 on the 4th of May, our cars did not turn into pumpkins. But believe it or not, the mask mandate and the remaining Covid-19 restrictions lapsed. The Department of Health had 30 days from the end of the Covid state of disaster to table and enforce any proposed Covid regulations to replace the previous regulations. Platinum Weekly spoke to North West Department of Health departmental spokesperson Tebogo Lekgethwane, who anticipated that our President or the Minister of Health would make an announcement on Wednesday 4 May. At the time of going to print, it was clear that they were not going to. The President's spokesperson, Tyrone Seale and the Department of Health made it clear that they are aware that as from midnight 4 May, there is no mask or other Covid-19 restrictions in place. Speaking to the media, Seale said: "The President will address us when he feels it is appropriate." ... "The mandates must come from inside," he added.

Mr. Airtime making a difference

Thabazimbi – Aubrey Senyolo from Thabazimbi, known as Mr. Airtime, has a heart for his community. When Covid-19 hit our shores, he soon realised that too many community members had no data to communicate with each other or their loved ones. A need for data spurred him to make a plan. A lot of people were looking for jobs, but without data, their options were limited as they could not check online for any vacancies available or even send their CVs via email if they wanted to apply. He started off with fun competitions where he would choose winners and award them with airtime and data. He assisted others with electricity – sometimes even a little bit went a long way. “I then got more and more students who needed airtime as they had to do a lot of their studies online and went through a lot of data. So, I started focusing on them so that they will be able to do research, send assignments, do online exams and watch academic videos,” Senyolo said in an interview with Platinum Bushvelder. In March 2021 the good work he was doing in his community got the attention of Telkom who decided to partner with him. Says Telkom senior specialist: consumer public relations and activations Kgomotso Zimase: “Senyolo offered students free airtime and data on his social media platform to assist ordinary South African youth in reaching their goals, despite the lack of connectivity from home. Telkom SA is a brand that believes in leaving no man behind and contributes to the transformation of disadvantaged communities, and we saw it fit to partner with him on this initiative to help him reach a broader audience in efforts to democratise access to technology.” Telkom sponsored airtime, data and devices. Knowing that connectivity is no luxury, the partnership with Mr Airtime managed to reach multiple students across the country and in the most remote areas while bridging the connectivity gap. During April this year Senyolo launched a campaign #HelpAStudent whereby top students can be awarded with airtime monthly. To see more of his good work, follow him on Twitter @Aubrey_Senyolo. To get involved or for more information contact him on 071 260 9313 or send a WhatsApp to 072 222 2236.

Sune shines in Panama

Thabazimbi – Eighteen-year-old Sune Meyer from Thabazimbi took to the catwalk at the Miss Teenager World in Panama on Saturday 30 April and was crowned 1st runner up. The pageant started on Monday 25 April at the Princess Hotel in Panama City. Sune walked away with the awards for ‘Best Bikini Body’, Miss Teenager Africa as well as the Miss Teenager World (1st runner up) title. The top spot went to Miss Teenager Bahamas. Sune was already crowned Miss Teenager South Africa back in 2020, but due to the Covid-19 pandemic it was postponed until now when the restrictions were lifted worldwide. This beauty pageant focuses on inspiring the youth to follow their dreams. This year they also focused on mental health. The contestants did photoshoots, they were interviewed, and they had the opportunity to take a limited tour to tourist attractions in Panama before the grand finale which was held on Saturday 30 April. Unlike other contestants who had a family member or a team accompanying them to the pageant, Sune did it all on her own. She had to do her own hair, own make-up and steam her clothing. Dajana Havenga, who used to have a modelling school, guided Sune with text messages and videos. Sune made sure to enjoy her time in Panama, and fostered friendships she is sure would last the test of time. “I am immensely proud as a coach. I watched her grow through this journey, and I just know she has come out of it wiser and even more brave. She is the last model I trained for a pageant and I’m so glad it ended on such a high note,” Havenga says.

Dinare secures TAR

Thabazimbi – As reported in Platinum Buhsvelder earlier this year, a few of Thabazimbi Animal Rescue’s (TAR) dogs were stolen – for what purpose... unknown. The search for them yielded no success. But that brought the safety of the four-foot strays that TAR take in, in question.

Dinare Security stepped up and offered TAR security services – for free – to both their charity shop as well as the kennels. Dinare Security put up a sign on 5 April.

TAR takes in strays (and in some cases wild animals) and they help people to adopt these animals which are kept in kennels at TAR. They mainly rehabilitate, and rehome animals in need.

A big thank you to Dinare Security!

YOUR FRIDAY FUN FACT

Did you know?

Your brain makes up its mind up to 11 seconds before you realise it. By looking at brain activity while making a decision, researchers can predict what choice people would make before they themselves were even aware of having made a decision.

In some cases, researchers could even predict people's eventual choices before the individual was even asked to make a choice.
