ON THE RAILS AGAIN

The truck eventually came to a standstill to the railway line.

Thabazimbi – Yet another truck accident at the infamous T-junction at Total Garage on the R510, on Thursday 29 September.

Nason Mwape, a 42-year-old truck driver was on his way to Johannesburg. Despite all his efforts, he was unsuccessful in bringing the truck to a standstill as he approached the T-junction.

He went straight over the T-junction (with out-of-order traffic lights). The momentum and the sheer weight of the truck pushed it up the embankment. The truck, like many trucks before, came a standstill on the railway line.

“What if?” comes to mind. He was very fortunate to have survived this accident, and that he did not hit another vehicle. Moreover, he was very lucky that there wasn’t a train on the railway at that moment in time.

Although the driver did not sustain any serious injuries, he sustained some lacerations and complained of a headache.

Platinum Bushvelder has reported on numerous accidents at this very spot over the years. The road leading to this T-junction takes serious negotiating, especially if a truck is carrying a heavy load. Sometimes drivers who don’t know this treacherous piece of road, often misjudge it.

Thaba Fire and Rescue’s Pierre Loots has pleaded with the Thabazimbi Local Municipality and SANRAL to erect a sandpit next to the road for the trucks as an additional break to avoid a collision at the T-junction.

“What if a bus passed the intersection at the same time? There are so many dangers to consider, and I think that it’s time this issue gets taken seriously,” he said in an interview with Platinum Bushvelder newspaper.

Thabazimbi’s Traffic Department acting traffic manager Isaac Pheto added: “We urge the community to follow the protocol and rules of the road, they also need to ensure that their vehicles are roadworthy.”

Simbahle aiming for the crown

Northam/ Amandelbult – Simbahle Joseph, a local beauty residing in Amandelbult, was chosen as a finalist for the Miss Teen Universe South Africa pageant that will take place on 13 March 2023.

At the young age of 17, she is already actively involved in changing her community for the better. As part of the requirements for the pageant and showing that she is worthy of the crown, she has to complete several charity projects.

Simbahle paid a visit to a local preschool to donate toys and motivate the youngsters. She also hosted a Spring Day event at Timbila Climate where she was a guest speaker tasked to talk about her journey as a Miss Teen Universe to motivate her peers. In August, she helped host a Body Positivity Drive and invited girls from her community to do a photoshoot. The idea behind this initiative was to celebrate, uplift and inspire local girls.

Another project, dear to her heart, is reaching out to local youths to get them focused on their academic achievements. Gender-based violence is another pressing issue that her community faces. She believes that it is important to talk about these issues so that women know that they are not alone.

When Simbahle is not out inspiring others, she helps to serve food at her school.

Her next project will be a visit to a nearby orphanage. Says Simbahle: “There are many children in my community who do not have parents. They don’t always have someone to turn to so I would like to be there for them and encourage them.”

In order to continue to make a positive change in her community, she needs the assistance of sponsors. These sponsorships will also assist her in gaining votes to land her a spot in the top 10.

“I am proud to be representing Limpopo and it would be an honour to bring the crown home,” Simbahle concluded.

For more information or if you would like to sponsor Simbahle in her journey, contact her mother Thandeka Joseph on 063 247 9870 or 064 799 0972.

Simbahle Joseph is a finalist for the Miss Teen Universe South Africa pageant.

Do you take care of your mental health?

Mental health includes our emotional, psychological, and social well-being. It affects how we think, feel, and act. When we are stressed, anxious, or feeling down... It's important to take a step back, breathe or talk to someone. Do you take care of your mental health or just brush it off as a difficult day and try again tomorrow?

No. I don't need to because I have a good reason to believe that my mental health is fine.

Gosiamo Dibetso

Yes. I think it's important. You can do anything your brain tells you that you are capable of. If your mental health is poor, then you will only have negative thoughts, which ultimately stops you from seeing anything positive that you can reach.

Northam – Twee dae van harde werk en vasberadenheid het vrugte afgewerp vir die Northam Rhinos tydens die Seven's toernooi in Klerksdorp op Vrydag 30 September en Saterdag 1 Oktober. Die Rhinos se tweede span het dit tot in die semi-finaal gemaak, maar het hul wedstryd verloor en het nie deurgedring na die volgende rondte nie. Die eerste span het hul halfeindstryd teen die SA All Stars gewen en in die eindstryd teen die Coyotes te staan gekom. Dit was naelskraap maar die Northam Rhinos wen dié wedstryd en so ook die toernooi. Knap gedaan manne!

PSALM 82

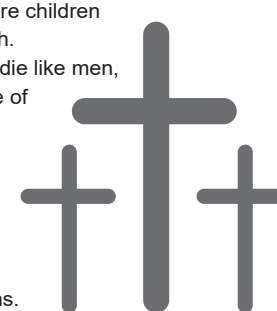

A Plea for Justice | A Psalm of Asaph.

82 God stands in the congregation of the mighty; He judges among the gods.
2 How long will you judge unjustly, And show partiality to the wicked? Selah
3 Defend the poor and fatherless; Do justice to the afflicted and needy.
4 Deliver the poor and needy; Free them from the hand of the wicked.

5 They do not know, nor do they understand; They walk about in darkness; All the foundations of the earth are unstable.

6 I said, "You are gods, And all of you are children of the Most High.
7 But you shall die like men, And fall like one of the princes."

8 Arise, O God, judge the earth; For You shall inherit all nations.
