Santa's early rounds...

Thabazimbi – December is a wonderful time of the year. There is nothing like the twinkling of lights, colourful Christmas trees, and the excitement on children's faces to get you into the holiday spirit! Siblings Juan-Dre and Rachael Smith can't wait for Christmas. As part of their family's tradition, they already started preparing on Monday 12 December 2022 for Santa's visit by putting out cookies and cooldrink. The evidence of Santa's early visit was clear as he left fairy dust footprints all over their living room and gifts under the tree. Of course, this has only added to their anticipation, but they will still have to wait for Christmas eve to open their gifts. But what the kids most look forward to is celebrating the birth of Christ with their family and giving thanks to God for all the blessings they had received throughout the year. This Christmas, may you be inspired to create lasting memories with your family and loved ones and may those memories be filled with laughter, appreciation, and heart-warming moments.

SHARING IDEAS TO MAKE LIFE EASIER

Northam – South African Police Service (SAPS) and non-profit organisations like Ipopeng Disability Care Centre, Khulisa Social Solutions, LoveLife and other local non-governmental organisation came together on Wednesday 7 December 2022 to commemorate International Day of Disabled Persons. This day is dedicated to promoting the rights and wellbeing of persons with disabilities in all spheres of society and is observed annually on 3 December. Northam Police spokesperson sergeant

Fortune Madisa, Ipopeng Disability Care Centre's Tonic Mataboge, community policing forum (CPF) members, and SAPS members gave people who live with disabilities the opportunity to interact with the police and share their experiences. It also created a platform for disabled people to share their ideas on how they could be better accommodated. By working together, they hope to find meaningful measures that will ensure that services are inclusive and accessible for everyone.

Swim safely this summer

Thabazimbi – December means swimming season is finally here! Swimming is always a fun activity during the hot summer days of Thabazimbi. Unfortunately, this also means that December has a lot of drownings. For some tips on water safety, Platinum Bushvelder reached out to Thabazimbi Fire and Rescue's (TFR) Pierre Loots on Tuesday 13 December 2022. If you plan on spending your holiday around water, it's important to never underestimate the dangers that come with it because an accident can happen in seconds. Children should always be supervised when playing around water. Make sure that they always have a sober guardian with them, not only when playing in the pool, but also near any bodies of water. "Something people rarely think of is to make sure that the area around your swimming pool is not slippery. This can be hazardous as someone can slip and fall into the pool," Loots explained. He also warned that inflatable toys can be a lot of fun in the pool but using an inflatable mattress in the water can be dangerous because there's the risk of the mattress deflating which could trap you and cause drowning. Also, never swim alone. You never know what can happen and it's always good to have a 'buddy' that can help or call for help if something happens. Avoid drinking alcohol when going swimming. When you drink it can affect your reflexes and you might not be able to act as quickly in an emergency. For those who don't have a swimming pool, cooling off in the river might look like a good idea—don't! Loots added: "Every year we ask the community to please stay out of rivers. At first glance, the current might not look strong, but it is! It's not just the current that causes you to drown either; there are many branches that could cause injury or entrapment." Because it's the rainy season, Loots also shared a few tips when it comes to flooding: "It is always the safest option to make sure that your roof gutters are clean, if the water builds up it can cause damage. Make sure that the water can move easily through your yard and that it can't run straight into your house." Do not drive over a road that is covered with water and barely visible, it's dangerous! The water could carry your vehicle away or you could get stuck! "The best advice I can give is that the power of water should not be underestimated!" Loots concluded.

In case of an emergency, contact emergency services at 112 where you will be put through to your nearest emergency call centre. You can also contact Thabazimbi Fire and Rescue at 063 512 4633.

Ready to bite – know the signs!

Thabazimbi – It's always sad when a beloved pet turns on a family member, friend, or even a stranger. Knowing the signs of an aggressive dog and how to counteract it, can spare you much heartache. On Thursday 8 December, EcoVet's veterinarian Dr Jamiela van der Walt shared a few tips on how to determine if your dog is aggressive. Dogs can communicate their discomfort using visual cues. The British Small Animal Veterinary Association's (BSAVA) Manual of Canine and Feline Behavioural Medicine's 2009 2nd edition written by Horwitz D. Mills DSA, refers to the 'canine ladder of aggression' which illustrates signs to look out for. According to the ladder, some of the most important tell-tale signs are when a dog starts to pull its ears back, crouches and tucks its tail, or more severely stiffens with a stare. "If your dog starts to show any of these signs, it might be an indication that it's feeling uncomfortable or threatened," said Van Der Walt, "Also, when they show these signs, try to establish what's making them feel uncomfortable so that you can either resolve or avoid the situation." Just like dogs need to be trained on how to behave, children also need to be trained on how to behave around dogs. "Kids need to know that it's not okay to climb on the dog's back. They must also learn not to come close to a dog when it's eating, and if they play with a dog, rather use toys instead of their hands," she added. Van Der Walt explained that if kids use their hands to play with the dog and the dog bites the child, it might not necessarily be because of aggression, but rather because the dog got confused between the child and its toy. Kids should also be taught not to pull on a dog's tail or ears—even humans get aggressive if they feel provoked. "A dog will also show its discomfort by looking away or walking away. This is referred to as 'evasive behaviour' for example, a canine could avoid its cause of aggression by pretending to drink water, or by walking away to sniff around the garden—this is an indication that the dog needs space. Additionally, many people also think that it's cute if a dog sits on your lap and growls at people who come close to you. This should be a big red flag and indicates that the dog is close to striking. The dog should be thought that such behaviour is unacceptable. "When a dog lightly bites you, there may still be hope for correcting its behaviour. There are different types of aggression, and depending on the cause of aggression, it may still be managed and corrected. This can be done by the means of professional training where the dog learns to work with its owner, and/or behavioural modification medication in cases where the dog suffers from anxiety or other disorders. "It is important to note that aggressive and instinctive behaviours are not the same. The key difference is that aggression is driven by emotions, whereas a dog's 'prey drive' is driven by its instinctive inclination to find, pursue and capture prey, or to deter a threat. A good example of 'prey drive' is when an unrecognised entity enters a dog's established boundary, and the dog reacts fiercely to reinforce its boundary. This is not aggression but rather a natural reaction. Therefore, because 'prey drive' is a natural instinct, it can't necessarily be corrected with the above-mentioned methods. The starting point is for every owner to be able to identify the reason for his/her dog's behaviour which the dog communicates through body language. The faster a behavioural issue is identified, the sooner it can be corrected," Van Der Walt concludes. For more info, contact EcoVet at 083 488 7896.

Do you have any New Year's resolutions?

As the year draws to a close, many of us start looking forward to 2023 and all of its possibilities.
Do you have any goals for 2023? What motivates your decision?

The only New Year's resolution I currently have is to strive to better myself and my relationship with the Lord.

TAR really needs your help

Thabazimbi – There is a special plea to the community of Thabazimbi to support Thabazimbi Animal Rescue (TAR), your local animal shelter. TAR needs donations of food. The facility is filled with animals that need your help. Please assist TAR to feed the animals in their care. Without donations they will not be able to feed, home and medically treat the animals. The community has proven time and again how they can stand together and support this worthy cause and this time is no exception. For more information, please contact TAR on 084 885 6487.

Did you know?

Different countries have different traditional Christmas dinners. While in South Africa we tend to celebrate with a braai or a roast, in Japan, a traditional Christmas dinner means a trip to Kentucky Fried Chicken (KFC). On the 25th of December every year, you'll find an estimated 3.6 million Japanese families sitting down to a hearty meal of KFC fried chicken.

PSALM 123

Prayer for Relief from Contempt
A Song of Ascents.

123 Unto You I lift up my eyes,
O You who dwell in the heavens.
2 Behold, as the eyes of servants look to the hand of their masters,
As the eyes of a maid to the hand of her mistress,
So our eyes look to the Lord our God,
Until He has mercy on us.
3 Have mercy on us, O Lord, have mercy on us!
For we are exceedingly filled with contempt.
4 Our soul is exceedingly filled
With the scorn of those who are at ease,
With the contempt of the proud.

Lethabo Nkuna received the title of second runner-up in the Miss Teen Waterberg District pageant.

Thabazimbi – Lethabo Nkuna, a Grade 11 learner at Mabogopedi Secondary School in Thabazimbi, received the title of second runner-up in the Miss Teen Waterberg District pageant on Saturday 3 December 2022. Lethabo is a model at Studio 3 and used the Miss Teen Waterberg District pageant as a platform to make a difference in her community through various projects.

A cause that is most dear to Lethabo is the Spitskop Special Needs School, where she volunteers her time to help with fundraising and interacts with the learners. “Charity is not just about donating funds. You can always help those who are in need by giving your time,” said Lethabo.

PLEASE HELP ME FIND MY OWNER

Thabazimbi – The Thabazimbi Animal Rescue (TAR) organisation found these dogs wandering the streets of Thabazimbi and is now searching for their owners.

If you can identify yours, please contact TAR’s Tania Stone at 084 885 6487 or Magda Stewart at 082 375 4064.

What are your plans for the holiday?

Thabazimbi – While some people take their annual leave, others are set to continue working during the festive season with short intervals of rest. Platinum Bushvelder reached out to community members to find out what their plans are for the holidays—be it at home or away.

This was a very busy year, so I plan to spend some quality time with my children and grandchildren. It doesn’t matter if we are cleaning or going somewhere, it will be great as long as we are together. This holiday is also the perfect time to do all the things we didn’t get to do during the year. We have a newly built flat on our property that needs painting, and then there is also some much-needed gardening.
Rekie van Wyngaarden

There were so many things we didn’t get time for during the year and for me, the holidays are the perfect time to get those things done. We will be painting our ceilings, and we have decided to paint our house grey. Our garden also needs a bit of colour so we will be planting flowers. We also want to start a vegetable garden with lettuce, tomatoes, and potatoes. The holiday will also give me time to clean my house from corner to corner.
Nadia Smith

For me, it will be about connecting and bonding with people that are close to my heart because one of my biggest values is family. My holiday already started at the beginning of December, so I’ve been on the road, and I’ve been spending my days with friends, family, and colleagues.
Bontle Mathabatha

I am lucky to not be working during the festive season, so I have a lot of time to spend with my family. We plan on planting spinach together. My family also loves to bond over soccer, so we plan to play a lot of soccer together. We also love to cook together, so making Christmas dinner will be extra fun. The menu will include lamb, chicken, and a variety of vegetables. Hopefully, we will also get a bit of rest to make sure we are ready for the new year.
