C/O VAN DER BIJL EN JUDITH STREET, THABAZIMBI

POLICE SERGEANT CAUGHT IN CRIME WEB

Thabazimbi - A tale of trust broken unfolded in Thabazimbi when a 39-year-old Police sergeant, William Rachuene, found himself on the defendant's side of the courtroom. He appeared before the Thabazimbi Magistrate Court on Thursday 14 September 2023 regarding a housebreaking and motor vehicle theft case. After his first court appearance, Rachuene was remanded in police custody and his case was postponed until Wednesday 20 September 2023 for formal bail application. However, at the time of going to print, the outcome could not be confirmed. Sergeant Rachuene, an officer stationed at Thabazimbi SAPS, was arrested in an unexpected twist at his workplace by the combined efforts of the Provincial Anti-Corruption Unit, Thabazimbi Crime Intelligence, and the Tactical Response Team (TRT) on 13 September. The sequence of events began when a house owner, after a trip to Mozambique in February, returned to a disturbing scene: a Toyota Corolla, once sheltered the homeowner's garage, had been stripped of parts, and a white Toyota Legend 45 bakkie was missing. This led to the arrest of two suspects in March, found with the engine and gearbox of the stolen bakkie. However, as investigations deepened, the trail circled back to Rachuene. It emerged that he had a hand in selling parts of the stolen vehicle. While the bakkie remains missing, the evidence against the sergeant was compelling enough for an arrest warrant. "The bakkie was never recovered, leading to a joint operation to apprehend the member at work," shared Limpopo police spokesperson, colonel Malesela Ledwaba. Limpopo's Provincial Commissioner, lieutenant general Thembi Hadebe, responded firmly to the arrest, stating that the SAPS has no place for officers who stray into criminal activities.

In remembrance

In liefdevolle herinnering aan Petrus Albertus Potgieter (52) gebore 26 Junie 1971, oorlede op Dinsdag 12 September 2023. Die begrafnis diens vind plaas op Saterdag 23 September 2023 vanuit die Boerevereniging saal te Dwaalboom. Pieter soos hy bekend was, laat sy vrou, kinders en familie agter. Pieter was 'n natuurmens, hy was baie lief vir jag en in die veld wees. Hy het in Maart 2001 sy beesboerdery in Delmas geruil vir die stilte van die Bosveld. Pieter het diep spore in die jaggemeenskap getrap, hy het die jonger generasie geïnspireer met sy jag stories en het die belangrikheid van bewaring graag gedeel en self uitgeleef. Pieter was baie betrokke by die professionele jagters organisasie van Suid-Africa (PHASA) waar hy die chairman van die foundation was totdat hy verkies is tot die president van PHASA en sy termyn November 2022 voltooi het. Buiten Motsomi Safaris waar Pieter sy passie vir jag uitgeleef het, het hy ook in 2019 saam met Charl van Rooyen 'n jagbesigheid in Tanzanië begin. Pieter het soveel mense aangeraak en het orals waar hy gegaan het altyd 'n glimlag agter gelaat. Pieter was 'n hardwerkende man, wat na aan sy Vader geleef het. Ons dank die Liewe Heer dat hy die merkwaardige man vir ons geleen het. Hy laat 'n groot leemte in almal wie hy aangeraak het se lewens agter. Ons bid genesing oor elkeen wat deur sy heengaan aangeraak is, mag elkeen troos vind by ons Hemelse Vader.

Vetkoek with the Ghost of Uniondale

Thabazimbi - On Monday 18 September 2023, Bosveldoord's hall was alive with cheerful and the inviting smell of vetkoek. The Afrikaans Language and Culture Association (ATKV) Thabazimbi teamed up with Thabazimbi SAVF to host a special 'Film and Vetkoek Day' for the residents of Bosveldoord, Sonskynoord, and Huis Immergroen. Bosveldoord resident and former baker for the SAVF, Anna Fuls, shared: "Each year we look forward to the 'Film and Vetkoek Day'. It's our break from the usual, a day to come together and indulge in something different." And indulge they did! With beverages in hand and plates filled with curry mince vetkoek, the attendees settled down to watch 'Die Spook van Uniondale'. The heartwarming romantic comedy, peppered with characters like the charming Cornelius, played by Tobie Cronje, and the sinister Jan-Dawid portrayed by Andre Schwartz, left everyone on the edge of their seats. While the ATKV Thabazimbi generously funded this memorable day, SAVF contributed the screen and manpower to serve the delicious vetkoek. A bond forged over seven years, these two organisations have continually come together to craft such heartening events for the community. ATKV project manager and SAVF deputy chairperson, Linda Grobler, conveyed the deeper sentiment: "The elderly, our parents, and grandparents cared for us with endless love. I want to remind others that spending time with them, and learning from their wisdom is a treasure".

Bosveldoord, Sonskynoord, and Huis Immergroen residents seating themselves to enjoy the movie.

SAVF chairperson Annali Connear (left) and ATKV project manager and SAVF deputy chairperson, Linda Grobler, believe that engaging with the elderly is vital to keeping them part of the community.

While SAVF primarily focuses on child welfare, they also show great dedication towards the elderly. SAVF chairperson Annali Connear, said: "We visit elderly homes monthly, bringing treats and arranging activities like bingo and reading sessions. Some don't have families left, so our engagement shows them that they're still cherished". Community days like these remind us of the importance of togetherness and appreciation. In Thabazimbi, traditions and memories are not just maintained but celebrated with enthusiasm and excitement. If you would like to get involved, attend the SAVF's annual general meeting on 27 September, 09:00 at Maroela Guesthouse, 6 Maroela Street. Dive deep into their activities and learn how you can play a part. For more details, contact 064 305 0569.

BRITS POLICE

UNCOVER SHOCKING CRIME DURING ROUTINE PATROL

Brits - A routine early morning patrol by the vigilant Assen police on Sunday 17 September 2023 took a dark turn in Kameeldrift along the R511 Road outside Brits. Officers, suspicious of a charcoal-coloured Nissan NP 200 bakkie, made a U-turn to pursue the vehicle. Their instincts proved tragically right.

Upon pulling over the vehicle at around 02:00, officers discovered the lifeless body of 45-year-old Dumisani Phakathi, concealed under plastic bags in the vehicle's rear. This gruesome discovery led to the arrest of two men, Louis Coetzee (47) and Jaco Kemp (45), who futilely attempted to flee the scene.

"It was during the search that police made the harrowing find," shared police spokesperson Amanda Funani, "Reports suggest that the suspects allegedly assaulted the man who was on their farm to fetch water".

Facing the gravity of their actions, the two men appeared before the Brits Magistrates' Court on Tuesday, 19 September, charged with the murder of Phakathi. The court postponed their case to 26 September, awaiting a formal bail application.

Further twists in the case emerged when a third suspect, connected to this grim incident, was arrested in Brits on 19 September. This individual had their court hearing on 20 September. However, as of our latest update, the outcome of this appearance is yet to be confirmed.

This harrowing event underscores the significance of our police's daily patrols, their alertness potentially preventing further such tragedies. Our community now awaits further clarity as the judicial process unfolds.

MUNICIPAL MANAGER, THABAZIMBI LOCAL MUNICIPALITY

Troublesome Taverns

[Letter to the Editor]

I'd like to highlight an ongoing issue in Thabazimbi: the constant noise from local taverns that stay open until the early hours. While we value these businesses for supporting our local economy, it's essential they respect both trading hours and the peace of our neighbourhood.

Living in a tight-knit town like ours means looking out for each other. Sadly, some tavern owners are forgetting this by playing loud music and continuing their business into the night, disturbing those living nearby.

Those who live close to these pubs suffer most, as the noise affects their sleep. It's particularly tough for people who have to get up early for work. We all need to come together to sort this out.

Tavern owners need to stick to set trading hours and keep the noise down. By doing this, they'll show they care about the peace and well-being of everyone in Thabazimbi. Respecting these guidelines will mean fewer complaints and a happier community.

I'd encourage tavern owners to keep to their operating hours and control the noise. This simple step will help keep our town peaceful, which is what we all want.

Let's all work together to make sure our town remains a respectful and considerate place to live.

LIMPOPO RESIDENTS FEAR JOB LOSSES OVER NEW TOBACCO BILL

Limpopo - In the Greater Capricorn District of Limpopo, locals expressed concerns to the Health Committee about potential job losses if the current Tobacco Products and Electronic Delivery Systems Control Bill (B33-2022) is passed. The concerns arose during public hearings, the last of which took place at Polokwane's Jack Botes Hall on Sunday 17 September 2023.

The Bill received mixed feedback. Many opposed it, fearing it could harm job security, especially for small traders selling individual cigarettes and emerging tobacco farmers. Concerns were also raised about the proposal for plain packaging on all tobacco products, which could boost the illicit trade market. Some urged the government to focus on existing rules and tackle the black market.

Others called for more consultations, suggesting that the Bill be discussed further with the National Economic Development and Labour Council. However, there was also support for the Bill. Advocates praised its protective measures for children, pregnant women, and non-smokers from second-hand smoke. The proposed regulations on electronic delivery systems were also seen as a necessary step. Critics argued that the tobacco industry prioritises profit over people's health.

The Tobacco Bill has stirred significant debate in Limpopo, with valid concerns on both sides. While many fear the economic repercussions, particularly for small traders and the rise in illicit trade, others see it as a positive step towards public health and welfare. As the discourse continues, it's clear that a balanced approach, considering both economic and health implications, is crucial for the well-being of the Limpopo community and beyond.

Have your say / Sê jou sê

Are you happy with the healthcare options in SA?

Whether you have a private medical aid or rely on the public healthcare system, are you happy with the options available in South Africa?

Yes, I'm pleased. South Africa boasts some of the best hospitals and medical infrastructure in the world. However, there's room for improvement. By renovating and enhancing health facilities nationwide and constructing more hospitals and clinics, we can elevate our healthcare services even further. Sentle Mputla

Yes, I'm content with my plan. However, the public healthcare system overall requires significant improvement. It should be a primary focus for the government to ensure that those who cannot afford private medical aid have a dependable option. Francois Steyn

PROVERBS 22

The Value of a Good Name

22 A good name is to be chosen rather than great riches,
Loving favor rather than silver and gold.
2 The rich and the poor have this in common,
The Lord is the maker of them all.
3 A prudent man foresees evil and hides himself,
But the simple pass on and are punished.
4 By humility and the fear of the Lord
Are riches and honor and life.
5 Thorns and snares are in the way of the perverse;
He who guards his soul will be far from them.
6 Train up a child in the way he should go,
And when he is old he will not depart from it.
7 The rich rules over the poor,
And the borrower is servant to the lender.
8 He who sows iniquity
will reap sorrow,
And the rod of his anger will fail.

A better path, one pothole at a time!

CPF and AfriForum started early in the morning with their repairs on the Spitskop Road.

Thabazimbi - This past Saturday 16 September 2023, the spirit of collaboration was evident on the Spitskop Road. The Community Policing Forum (CPF) sector 7 and AfriForum joined forces to address the persistent issue of potholes that have plagued residents.

“This marks our fourth pothole initiative on this very road. With AfriForum jumping on board, and the financial backing from local businesses, we’re striving beyond just enhancing security – we’re aiming for the broader upliftment of Thabazimbi,” commented CPF sector 7 chairperson, Roelf Krause.

Such initiatives exemplify what can be achieved when organisations rally together. It’s not just about mending roads; it’s about creating an environment that residents are proud to call home.

AfriForum Limpopo’s district coordinator, CJ van der Walt, echoed this sentiment, expressing a vision of a safer and more pride filled Thabazimbi. He stated: “We want the community to thrive in a place that’s safe and that they can take pride in.”

RAYMOND ACKERMAN
10/03/1931 - 06/09/2023
You will live on in all of our hearts that you have touched, deeply,
in so many ways,
over so many years.

Thabazimbi Homeless Shelter welcomes all for a heartwarming celebration on 25 December 2023.

A heartfelt Christmas feast at Thabazimbi Homeless Shelter

Thabazimbi – This Christmas, Thabazimbi Homeless Shelter stands as a beacon of community spirit and compassion. Spearheaded by its founder and board member, Beverly Kühn, the shelter will host a festive Christmas dinner that promises both warmth and camaraderie.

Beverly passionately invites everyone, emphasising, “Whether you are young or old, or perhaps spending Christmas alone, our doors are open to all.”

The highlight? The Christmas feast is free. Guests can relish the meal at the shelter or opt for a takeaway to celebrate in their own special way. To ensure that there's plenty of festive cheer to share, kindly RSVP to Beverly Kuhn at 078 403 1813 by 30 November 2023.

For those wishing to sprinkle extra magic on this celebration, contributions are warmly welcomed. Items needed include: gifts for children aged 2-6, a variety of beverages, desserts, sweet treats, watermelons, custard, bread buns, butter, chicken, mincemeat, non-pork roasts, green beans, ingredients for potato and curry noodle salads, rice, onions, tomatoes, mayonnaise, salt, pepper, gravy, ice, and pumpkin. Assistance in packaging takeaways is also appreciated.

Join us as we knit our community closer with a festive day full of love and unity in Thabazimbi.
