Thabazimbi - Saturday 16 September 2023 turned into a nightmarish ordeal when flames, ignited by an act of arson at approximately 11:00, swept through Holfontein, soon reaching the quiet landscape of Maroelasfontein. In this dire moment, as fear and flames intertwined, a band of brave souls rose to the challenge.

Local farmers, together with responders from Thabazimbi Fire and Rescue (TFR), Swartklip Mine, Numzaan, Anglo American Platinum's Amandelbult Complex, ARM Andalusite Mine, and Northam Working on Fire (WoF), alongside the swift response from WildMed Emergency Services, waged a fierce battle against the blaze.

For four harrowing days and nights, these brave individuals fought relentlessly against the fiery invader.

Chris Liebenberg of the Northam Boere Vereniging and chairperson of the Thabazimbi Fire Association, said: "The fire burnt down approximately 18,500 hectares, causing damages in the millions. Two houses burnt down, and a lodge was damaged. Fortunately, there were no serious injuries or deaths".

The flames, though merciless, were met with a force of resilience and bravery. Each firefighter, every volunteer, stood as a testament to the strength that courses through the veins of our community.

The fire rapidly spread to Maroelasfontein.

A TRIBUTE TO OUR LOCAL HEROES

The fire was started by an arsonist near Holfontein.

Aside from this tragic account, Thabazimbi and its surrounds has been inundated by fires over the past several weeks. A special thanks is owed to the following heroes who continue to keep us safe against all odds:

- Dinare Security
- Swartklip Mine fire team
- Numzaan
- Anglo American Platinum's Amandelbult Complex fire rescue team
- ARM Andalusite Mine fire team
- Northam Platinum fire team
- Northam WoF

- Waterberg District Municipality
- Matlabas PROTO team
- Holfontein farmers
- Maroelasfontein farmers
- Matlabas farmers
- Makoppa farmers
- Sentrum farmers

- Dwaalboom farmers

In the quiet moments when the day's work is done and the city slumbers, their heroism, often unsung, reverberates in every corner of our lives. Every sunrise that we witness, every breath of safety we inhale, and every sanctuary of home that we cherish, stands as a testament to their unwavering bravery.

C/O VAN DER BIJL EN JUDITH STREET, THABAZIMBI

Quest for justice continues...

Thabazimbi – The trial involving the three suspects, a man and two women, who are facing allegations of child sexual assault, child neglect, and assault with the intent to cause serious bodily harm, has once more been postponed until Thursday 5 October 2023. This follows their appearance before the Thabazimbi Regional Court on Tuesday 19 September. Initially apprehended on 26 January 2023, the man and the two women were taken into custody when it was revealed that a child had been subjected to sexual assault, and two children had been brutally attacked using a cricket bat. On 8 February, the two women were granted bail of R1,000 each, while the man was released on bail of R2,000 for the initial charges. However, he remained incarcerated after an additional charge of sexual assault was levied against him. On 13 March 2023, he was granted release on bail of R2,000 for the first charge and R500 for the second charge.

RAPIST SENTENCED TO 25 YEARS IMPRISONMENT

Northam - The provincial commissioner of the Limpopo South African Police Service, lieutenant general Thembi Hadebe, has welcomed the incarceration of a 40-year-old male after he was sentenced to an effective 25 years' imprisonment by the Regional Court in Modimolle on Tuesday 19 September 2023. The court heard that the accused had raped a seven-year-old girl at Smashblock informal settlement under the Northam Policing area in the Waterberg District on 2 June 2019. It is reported that the victim was called by her uncle in the afternoon to come to his room, which is opposite her residence. This occurred while a family gathering ceremony was hosted a few houses away from the crime scene. The victim went to the accused's room, and upon arrival, the accused closed the door and raped her. The minor was later released by the accused, but she did not report the ordeal. Reports indicate that the neighbour of the accused saw the victim entering and became suspicious when she realised that the child spent a long time inside the room. Consequently, the neighbour informed the girl's aunt. The child was questioned, and she revealed that she was feeling pain in her stomach and genitals. The victim was immediately transported to the local hospital for a medical examination, and it was later confirmed that she had been raped. The matter was immediately reported at the Northam Police Station, and a rape case was opened. A massive manhunt for the suspect was then launched. The accused was subsequently arrested the very same day by members of the community and handed over to the police. The case was transferred to the Thabazimbi Family Violence, Child Protection and Sexual Offences Unit (FCS) for further investigations. Sergeant Modupi was assigned to investigate the matter, and he executed brilliant work to oppose bail during several court appearances made by the accused until he was convicted for the rape of a minor and sentenced to an effective 25 years' imprisonment by the Modimolle Regional Court. Furthermore, the accused was also declared unfit to possess a firearm, and his particulars are to be included in the National Register for Sexual Offenders. "I appreciate the sterling work that was displayed by the police and other stakeholders involved to ensure that perpetrators are continuously rooted out of society for the safety and comfort of the inhabitants of this province," concluded general Hadebe.

SOULFOOD PROVERBS 23

Listen to Your Father

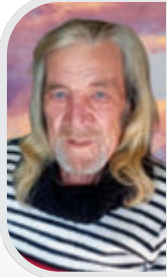

23 When you sit down to eat with a ruler,
Consider carefully what is before you;
2 And put a knife to your throat
If you are a man given to appetite.
3 Do not desire his delicacies,
For they are deceptive food.
4 Do not overwork to be rich;
Because of your own understanding,
cease!
5 Will you set your eyes on that which is not? For riches certainly make themselves wings; They fly away like an eagle toward heaven.

NEW KING JAMES VERSION (NKJV)

6 Do not eat the bread of a miser,
Nor desire his delicacies;
7 For as he thinks in his heart, so is he.
"Eat and drink!" he says to you,
But his heart is not with you.
8 The morsel you have eaten, you will vomit up,
And waste
your pleasant words.

A week of wonders

SA/ Thabazimbi - The magnificence of the South African landscape, with its sprawling savannas, lush forests, and iconic wildlife, is a source of national pride. Every year, the charm of our national parks captures the hearts of millions. But this September, the allure is not just in the breathtaking scenery, but in the generous open arms of South African National Parks (SANParks).

For its eighteenth year, SANParks opened its parks for the SA National Parks Week which took place from Saturday 16 to Sunday 24 September 2023. Offering free access, it was a golden ticket to explore the wonders that lie within our borders, a journey of discovery echoing the theme 'Know Your National Parks.'

One such gem, the Marakele National Park, is not just a spectacle of nature but a narrative of our rich cultural and historical heritage. "SA National Parks Week was a great opportunity for the community to experience the beauty of Marakele which is at their doorsteps. Not only did Marakele visitors enjoy free access, they also had a chance try our game drives which were offered at 50% discount amongst other activities," said Marakele National Park park manager Koketso Kotsoe. Although SA National Parks Week has come to an end, the treasure trove of nature's splendour remains open to explore, to cherish, and to protect. Let's continue to walk the trails, breathe the fresh air, and with every step, weave ourselves into the intricate tapestry of our natural, cultural, and historical narrative.

Konstructica's charity extravaganza

Thabazimbi – On Spring Day, Konstructica Hardware and Building Materials employees, under the leadership of owner Rudi Nel, transformed Konstructica's premises into a hub of charity and community spirit. And the excitement peaked on 15 September when raffle champions claimed their grand rewards!

Working hand-in-hand with Tambotie Versorging Sentrum and the Tshepong Children's Project, the event was a medley of community involvement. Tantalising hot dogs and refreshing beverages were on sale, courtesy of the two organisations, offering a simple yet delicious way for people to contribute to a noble cause.

But it wasn't just about food and drinks. The event also featured a raffle sale, spicing up the day with a bit of luck and anticipation. Generous Konstructica suppliers ensured that the raffle prizes were irresistible as a Weber braai, Ryobi blower, a Medal Paint gift pack, a Pacer pool cleaner, a Tork Craft rotary tool and accessories set, and much more were up for grabs.

Rudi Nel made a heartfelt commitment to make this charitable endeavour an annual tradition. "It's incredible to see the community come together like this. The essence of this event is to show that we can accomplish great things when we act collectively".

The Konstructica staff and those from Office Man fully embraced the day's spirit as they enthusiastically sold raffle tickets. The proceeds were earmarked for the Tshepong Children's Project and Tambotie Versorging Sentrum, giving both organisations a financial boost.

Tshepong Children's Project director, Louise Coetzee, voiced her gratitude: "This event will significantly aid in our operations and bring happiness to our children's home."

Tambotie Versorging Sentrum manager Barbara Pienaar underscored the significance of their relationship with Konstructica, describing them as permanent sponsors who consistently offer assistance with construction-related needs.

Congratulations to winners Herman Redelinghuys who won the Pacer pool cleaner, JD Jordaan who won a Tork Craft rotary tool and accessories, Henk Botha as the Ryobi blower winner, Moloko Ramahuma who took home the Weber braai, Mathys Schoeman who won the Medal Paint gift pack, and Konstructica giftpack winners Paul Freeborough and Phillip Potgieter.

By combining community spirit with a dash of fun, Konstructica's charity event not only raised vital funds but also reaffirmed the age-old adage that unity is strength.

Team spirit in the name of goodwill.
