Accident on Ellisras road

CAR SLAMMED INTO BACK OF TRUCK

Thabazimbi - An accident occurred on the Ellisras road (R510) last Thursday afternoon, 9 November, at around 14:00, just before the Alma turnoff in the direction of Ellisras. The accident, involving a car and a truck, led to the hospitalisation of the driver of the vehicle and his three children.

According to information received from Victor Bennett of Thaba Fire and Rescue, the accident is believed to have been caused when the truck abruptly applied its brakes, leading to the car crashing into its rear. The man driving the car sustained serious injuries and was promptly transported, along with the children, to Thabazimbi's public hospital by the provincial ambulance service. While the children did not suffer visible injuries, they were taken to the hospital for precautionary observation.

As the holiday season approaches, road safety campaigns will once again draw attention to the carnage on our roads and provide advice on how to prevent it. Many of these accidents could have been avoided.

Keep calm and drive on

[Letter to the editor]

I've come to understand that reckless driving is a major threat to everyone's safety on the road. When people drive hazardously on purpose, either out of spite or sheer carelessness, it's known as aggressive driving. This can even escalate to road rage, a serious crime where someone intends to physically hurt others.

Here's how I handle aggressive drivers and keep my own stress levels in check while driving:

To protect myself, I always make sure my car's doors are locked when I'm dealing with an aggressive driver. In traffic, I leave enough space to manoeuvre around the car in front if necessary. I try not to take things personally. I stay polite and courteous, even if the other driver isn't. I avoid conflicts as much as possible and, if challenged, I just take a deep breath and move out of the way. I never underestimate what the other driver might do.

As for reducing my own stress, I've learned that I can't control the traffic, only how I react to it. Frustration, anger, and impatience are often the real dangers on the road, and I work hard to keep these emotions in check.

With the year drawing to an end, and patience running low, let's remember to take a breath and keep our anger at a low.

Ford team triumphs in thrilling Waterberg 400 rally

The Waterberg 400, marking the grand finale of the 2023 SA Rally-Raid Championship, was a spectacle of skill and endurance. Held on Friday 10 and Saturday 11 of November, this challenging race not only tested the mettle of the drivers across diverse terrains but also brought a buzz of excitement and economic uplift to our area. Starting at Koedoeskop Laerskool, a short distance from Northam, the race began with a 59-kilometre qualifying challenge on the first day, followed by two intense 178-kilometre laps the next day. The course's varied landscape, from narrow paths through game farms to faster, open tracks, kept the drivers on their toes. Amidst this heated competition, Gareth Woolridge and Boyd Dreyer of the Ford team clinched both the Overall Production Vehicle Championship and the FIA T1+ Championship in their formidable NWM Ford Castrol Ranger T1+. Overcoming initial setbacks like a flat tyre that placed them eighth in the starting lineup, the pair showcased resilience and skill. Despite the sweltering heat and challenging route, they emerged victorious with a time of 5 hours, 25 minutes, and 21 seconds, a clear lead over their nearest rivals. Their triumph marked their third major win in what proved to be a demanding season. Their teammates Lance Woolridge and Kenny Gilbert also displayed commendable performance despite similar tyre woes. Other notable competitors included the Berthold-Köhne duo and the team of De Villiers and Murphy, with Lance Trethewey and Adriaan Roets braving a faulty air conditioner to secure fifth place. In the Special Vehicle Category, seasoned competitors Geoff Minnitt and Rodney Burke took home the Class G title in their Hydro Power Equipment Can-Am Maverick, highlighting the diversity and depth of talent in this year's championship. The race was not without its share of drama, as season champions Tim Howes and Gary Campbell had to withdraw following an unexpected encounter with a fence. As the Waterberg 400 wrapped up, it left fans and participants alike with memories of a race that was as unpredictable as it was exhilarating, signalling a successful conclusion to the 2023 racing calendar.

“I have been very fortunate to have Boyd as my navigator for the past nine years, as he is extremely professional and dedicated. It also helps that we’ve been best friends since school and we work very well together as a team, which is essential to achieve success in this sport.” Gareth Woolridge.

HAVE A HEART
[Letter to the Editor]

Denji the molly was peacefully eased out of his suffering.

When you hear someone has a pet, you immediately think of cats or dogs, right? Well, in some cases, people have pet fish. Many view pet fish as more of a decoration than a true companion, leading to misconceptions about owning fish as pets. Fish have very specific needs and require attentive and routine care. Neglect can make them sick and even lead to their demise. Taking a fish to the vet isn't always possible.

In my case, one of my pet fish, Denji, a molly, fell ill. I attempted to treat him, but it appeared he had an inoperable cancerous tumour. Saddened by this, I sought advice from friends on how to ease his suffering and help him pass peacefully. Immediate suggestions included 'flush it,' 'chop its head off,' or 'just take it out of the water.' After all, it's just a fish, right? Wrong.

Every little life deserves mercy. So, I conducted some research and discovered that the most humane way to help my little friend rest was to use clove oil. Clove oil acts as an anaesthetic for fish and, in specific quantities, can be used to euthanize them.

Approximately 0.4 ml of clove oil per litre of aquarium water is sufficient to euthanize a fish. First, mix the clove oil with a small amount of warm water before gradually adding it to the aquarium water. This gently induces sleep in the fish, allowing them to pass away peacefully.

Rest in peace to my dear Denji, and I hope that more fish owners out there will reconsider flushing their ailing friends down the toilet.

Is a tropical destination your idea of a perfect holiday?

The sea and sun, widely regarded as lots of fun. Tropical vacation spots are highly enticing, though perhaps not appealing to everyone. How about yourself?

No, I don't because the beach is always crowded and noisy. I prefer a farm or nature reserve getaway because it's quiet and peaceful, and you can still swim even if it's not in the ocean.

Mabrie Willemse

Yes, the continuous humidity makes you want to take a dip in the refreshing waters and explore the lush greenery along the shoreline. In other words, the warmth that you feel is real and soothing.

Paul Urges Forgiveness

2 But I determined this within myself, that I would not come again to you in sorrow. 2 For if I make you sorrowful, then who is he who makes me glad but the one who is made sorrowful by me?

Forgive the Offender

3 And I wrote this very thing to you, lest, when I came, I should have sorrow over those from whom I ought to have joy, having confidence in you all that my joy is the joy of you all. 4 For out of much [a]ffliction and anguish of heart I wrote to you, with many tears, not that you should be grieved, but that you might know the love which I have so abundantly for you. 5 But if anyone has caused grief, he has not grieved me, but all of you to some extent—not to be too severe. 6 This punishment which was inflicted by the majority is sufficient for such a man, 7 so that, on the contrary, you ought rather to forgive and comfort him, lest perhaps such a one be swallowed up with too much sorrow.

POLL

Do you like fictional stories?

Fiction refers to any narrative work where the events and characters are imaginary, or at least not entirely based on fact. Fiction can broaden the imagination and serves as a form of escapism. However, some prefer non-fiction based on real events, facts, and information. With that said, is fiction your cup of tea? Make yourself heard by sending an email to news@platinumbushvelder.co.za or send us a WhatsApp on 081 579 7000 with the following information before 17:00 on Monday 20 November 2023.

- Yes, I like fictional stories.
- No, I don't.
- The reason for your answer.
- A recent photo of yourself—so that we can publish your pic with your answer.
- Your contact details.
- Please indicate in which town/ city you reside.

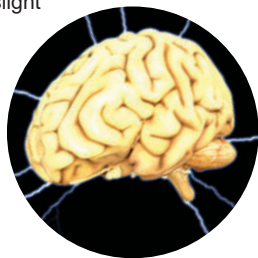

The results of the votes will be published in our next issue.

P.S. You can also give your opinion by commenting on our Facebook post.

Did you know?

The human brain is made up of about 80% water. This high-water content is crucial for its functioning. It not only aids in the electrical transmission of nerve signals but also helps maintain brain structure and chemistry. Even slight dehydration can affect cognitive functions, impacting memory, attention, and decision-making processes.

TAR REALLY NEEDS YOUR HELP

Thabazimbi – There is a special plea to the community of Thabazimbi to support Thabazimbi Animal Rescue (TAR), your local animal shelter. TAR needs donations of food. The facility is filled with animals that need your help. Please assist TAR to feed the animals in their care. Without donations they will not be able to feed, home and medically treat the animals. The community has proven time and again how they can stand together and support this worthy cause and this time is no exception. For more information, please contact TAR on 084 885 6487.

Help Thabazimbi Homeless Shelter to spread Christmas cheer with a festive meal

Don't let anyone go hungry this Christmas

Thabazimbi – This Christmas, Thabazimbi Homeless Shelter stands as a beacon of community spirit and compassion. Spearheaded by its founder and board member, Beverley Spira Kühn, the shelter will provide a festive Christmas meal on Monday, 25th December 2023. “We want to help anyone who can’t afford a meal on Christmas,” says Beverly. “The meals will be served from 12:00 to 14:00 at no cost, and people are welcome to have a seat or collect their meal as a takeaway. Unfortunately, we won’t deliver.” To ensure that there’s plenty of festive cheer and enough tables to share, kindly RSVP to Beverly Spira Kühn on 078 403 1813 or RSVP in person by visiting the shelter at 14 Jourdan Street by 30 November 2023. If you would like to be a part of making this special day possible, contact Beverly to make a donation or a financial contribution. Thabazimbi Homeless Shelter

Get ready for the 2024 National and Provincial Elections

SA - South Africa's seventh democratic elections are scheduled to take place between May and August 2024, with the exact date to be announced by the President early in 2024. Don't miss out – get ready to vote in the 2024 Elections. On Tuesday, 24 October 2023, the Electoral Commission of South Africa launched the 2024 National and Provincial Elections (NPE 2024) programme, declaring that it is ready to host millions of eligible voters at over 23,296 voting stations across the country. The Commission reiterates its commitment to open nearly 23,296 voting stations for the weekend of 18 and 19 November 2023. This monumental effort not only registers new voters but also facilitates the verification of the roll. Voting station-based registration ensures equitable access to the vote. Furthermore, the Electoral Commission has expanded registration modalities to enable voters' continuous enrolment. For those with internet access, registration, inspection, and updates are accessible via <https://registertovote.elections.org.za>. Voters may also visit local offices or capitalise on various activation campaigns to register and update their information. The Electoral Commission, press release extracts, October 2023.
