Resilience amidst adversity

As I look back at the past year, four words really stick out when I think about what we’ve all been through – No water! No electricity. We’ve all felt it here in Thabazimbi and surrounds. These problems keep popping up, affecting everyone’s life. But, despite these tough times, our community’s held strong and, in some ways, some of us even thrived. We’ve turned these tough times into a story of how resilient and united we are. Thabazimbi and its surrounds, right in the heart of the bushveld, are filled with amazingly resilient and kind people. People like Nickey Cronje. With a sense of profound loss and respect, I want to pay tribute to Nickey, a deeply valued member of our community who recently passed away. She will be remembered as a positive force in our community. We are going to miss her. People like Nickey are the ones who always step up, whether it’s sharing a cup of milk during power cuts or offering a shower to those without water. In journalism, we get to share the ups and downs of our community, from big celebrations to the tough times of loss. If you’re mourning loved ones, friends, or colleagues, I’m truly sorry for your loss.

The strength shown by the people in Thabazimbi, Northam, Regorogile, and their surrounds has been incredible. Especially with all the fires this year, the way everyone’s come together to fight the fires, any time of day, often at your own expense, has been amazing. A big thank you to all of you. Like lots of businesses, we’ve felt the impact of Covid and the economic downturn. The promotional inserts in the Platinum Bushvelder from supermarkets like Checkers, Spar, and Pick n Pay, with all their deals and offers, have become really handy for our readers. They love checking out the latest bargains every week – it helps with shopping and budgeting. Your support, both our clients and readers, keeps us going. And to the Platinum Bushvelder team – your hard work is what makes this all possible. I can’t thank you enough.

With the festive season coming up, let’s all travel safely and be mindful of others on the road. Looking ahead to the New Year, I can’t wait to see the stories it brings. I hope this festive season is safe, joyful, and full of blessings for you and your families. God bless you all.

As we wrap up this year, it’s a good time to think about the journey we’ve been on together. To our readers, your involvement is what makes it worth the while. And to our advertisers, we really value our partnership. Your trust in us helps keep the community connected and growing together.

Northam landfill fire raises concerns: a call for responsible waste management

Northam – On Saturday 11 December 2023, residents of Northam witnessed a distressing scene as a massive fire engulfed the Northam landfill site. Thick, black smoke billowed into the sky, an alarming sight that raised immediate concerns among the community, especially given the landfill’s proximity to a local primary school.

The fire, which reportedly started when individuals sorting waste at the dumpsite attempted to make food, quickly spiralled out of control. Fuelled by the wind, the flames spread rapidly, creating a hazardous situation. Residents reported an unbearable combination of smoke and odour pervading the area.

In response to the crisis, the fire department was promptly summoned to the scene. Their efforts, alongside the invaluable assistance of community members and the Community Policing Forum (CPF), played a crucial role in managing the emergency. These volunteers bravely stepped in to regulate traffic amid reduced visibility caused by the dense smoke, recalling a past incident where poor visibility led to a severe head-on collision.

The absence of the police and traffic department during this critical time was noted with concern by several community members.

In light of these events, the Thabazimbi Local Municipality issued a press release on 11 December, highlighting the dangers posed by irresponsible waste disposal practices. The release emphasised the risks associated with burning materials, particularly plastics and rubber, which release harmful pollutants and contribute to air pollution. “These actions not only endanger human health, leading to respiratory issues among other concerns, but also harm the environment. Recent observations have identified instances where burning of waste materials has occurred, posing significant risks to the health and safety of our workers and the surrounding community. To address this concern, we are implementing a stringent monitoring system specifically targeting reclaimers at the landfill site. Effective immediately, all reclaimers are reminded and required to adhere to the strict policy against burning rubbish. Failure to comply may result in disciplinary measures to ensure the well-being of all individuals involved”.

The municipality’s statement calls for collective action and responsibility in waste management. As Thabazimbi grapples with the aftermath of the landfill fire, the incident serves as a stark reminder of the importance of responsible waste management. The community’s collaborative spirit in responding to the crisis is commendable, but it also underscores the need for greater awareness and adherence to proper disposal practices.

Amidst a dangerous situation with no visibility, drivers faced thick, black smoke billowing from the Northam landfill site fire.

Have your say / Sê jou sê

Do you follow a morning regime to start your day?

Some people need morning routines to kick off their day; some do morning stretches, some need time for meditation, and perhaps at least two cups of coffee before they can get going. With that said, do you have a strict morning regimen, or do you just wing it?

No, while a morning routine is often regarded as a beneficial way to begin the day, I have yet to discover one that suits me. An effective morning routine should encompass activities that bring enjoyment, and as of now, I haven't found pleasure in activities like jogging or indulging in an extensive skincare routine merely to kickstart my day.
Mihle July

Yes, I do have a strict morning regimen and that is by having my first cup of coffee in bed. I just wing the rest of the morning, but I do however wake up much earlier in the mornings to ensure my day does not start off rushed. I have a basic to do list in the morning and if it's not done my whole day feels abnormal.

Marks of the Ministry

6 We then, as workers together with Him also plead with you not to receive the grace of God in vain. 2 For He says: "In an acceptable time I have heard you, And in the day of salvation I have helped you." Behold, now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation. 3 We give no offense in anything, that our ministry may not be blamed. 4 But in all things we commend ourselves as ministers of God: in much patience, in tribulations, in needs, in distresses, 5 in stripes, in imprisonments, in tumults, in labors, in sleeplessness, in fastings; 6 by purity, by knowledge, by longsuffering, by kindness, by the Holy Spirit, by sincere love, 7 by the word of truth, by the power of God, by the armor of righteousness on the right hand and on the left, 8 by honor and dishonor, by evil report and good report; as deceivers, and yet true;

Did you know?

The modern image of Santa Claus wearing a red suit was popularised by Coca-Cola in their advertising campaign in the 1930s. The company hired artist Haddon Sundblom to create images of Santa for their Christmas advertisements. Sundblom's depiction of Santa in a red suit with a white fur trim became iconic and has largely shaped the contemporary image of Santa Claus.

TAR really needs your help

Thabazimbi – There is a special plea to the community of Thabazimbi to support Thabazimbi Animal Rescue (TAR), your local animal shelter.

TAR needs donations of food. The facility is filled with animals that need your help. Please assist TAR to feed the animals in their care. Without donations they will not be able to feed, home and medically treat the animals.

The community has proven time and again how they can stand together and support this worthy cause and this time is no exception. For more information, please contact TAR on 084 885 6487.

Friends to Addicts
is a support group that offers healing, hope & restoration in a safe environment. The team have walked the road and are able to assist those in need to find restoration.
