WIT GOUD DIE KATOENPAD VAN THABAZIMBI

In die Thabazimbi omgewing, waar die aarde ryk en welig is, lê 'n storie van vernuwing en volhoubaarheid ingebed in die katoenvelde van Koedoeskop, Makoppa, en Dwaalboom. Hier, waar elke katoenvesel 'n verhaal vertel, staan twee mans aan die voorpunt van 'n katoenrevolusie: Callie Krüger, direkteur van Cotton Seed Enterprises en Nico Swart, landboukundige van Koedoeskop Cotton Gin.

Cotton Seed Enterprises se direkteur, Callie Krüger (links), saam met landboukundige van Koedoeskop Cotton Gin, Nico Swart.

Callie en Nico deel hul wenresep met ons lesers.

Weef sukses in katoenverbouing

Dit begin alles by die saad. 'n Goeie oes spruit uit gehalte saad, en dit is presies hier waar ons storie begin. Hierdie toegewyde duo het die hande ineengeslaan om 'n splinternuwe katoenkultivar, CX22 BGII RRF, te toets op die vrugbare grond van Lourens du Plessis, ook bekend as Louma Boerdery.

Na drie jaar van landwyse toetse is hierdie kultivar gereed om die mark storm te loop. Op 4 April 2024 het hulle 'n Katoenkultivar Besigtigingsdag by die plaas Hampton aangebied, 'n bewys van die vooruitgang en sukses wat hierdie kultivar belof. Die lintopbrengs van CX22 BGII RRF oortref bestaande variëteite met 'n indrukwekkende 4-6%, 'n getuigskrif van sy uitnemendheid.

Die pad van saad tot sukses

By Cotton Seed Enterprises in Pretoria word die katoensaad fyn versorg – ontvesel, behandel met swamdoders en insekdoders – om slegs die beste kwaliteit saad aan ons boere te verskaf, alles SANSOR-gesertifiseerd. Dit is die verbintenis tot kwaliteit wat die grondslag lê vir 'n voorspoedige oes. Die saad word dan in samewerking met Obaro bemark. Candia BGII RRF is huidige die beste kultivar vir die produksie gebied se besproeiingskatoen en word met groot sukses verbou. Dit het die hoogste opbrengs, veselkwaliteit en pluïspresentasie.

Katoen SA: die hartklop van Suid-Afrikaanse katoen

Katoen SA staan aan die spits van die bedryf, nie net as 'n verteenwoordiger op internasionale vlak nie, maar ook as 'n pionier in die handhawing van uitmuntende kwaliteit. Hul laboratoriums en navorsingsprojekte ondersteun die voortdurende strewe na uitnemendheid in ons katoenproduksie.

Wintertyd lyk die katoenlande soos ons eie bosveld sneeu!

Wanneer die winter sy intrek neem, transformeer die katoenlande in 'n betowerende sneeulandskap, 'n herinnering aan die natuurlike skoonheid en sterkte van katoen. Van die veld tot die spinner, van lakens tot denims, katoen bly 'n simbool van ons verbintenis tot natuurlike, sterk, en veelsydige produkte.

Die reis eindig nie hier nie. Die gepluisde saad vind sy weg na "Super Oil Mills" in Marble Hall, waar die olie vir huishoudelike gebruik uitgepers word en die oorblyfsels dien as voedsame veevoer.

Dit is die kringloop van volhoubaarheid wat ons koester, 'n kringloop wat katoen nie net as 'n gewas nie, maar as 'n hernubare hulpbron vier.

In die Thabazimbi-omgewing is katoenverbouing meer as net 'n landbou-onderneming; dit is 'n hoofstuk in 'n groter verhaal van volhoubaarheid, innovasie, en sukses wat nog geskryf word.

Thabazimbi se wit goud: waar elke katoenvesel 'n storie van innovasie en volhoubaarheid vertel.

A call for respect

Northam – In a recent visit to a well-known store in Northam, I witnessed an unsettling incident that prompts me to write to you. I observed a woman, clearly absorbed in a conversation on her phone via WhatsApp, as she entered the store. This ordinary moment took an unfortunate turn when a store employee, presumably for security reasons, briefly stopped her entry, and then let her in moments later.

However, the situation escalated quickly. Within minutes, the store's supervisor and manager approached her. In a tone far from private, and before the eyes of bewildered customers, they loudly accused her of recording a video inside the store.

Despite the woman's protests and her offer to prove her innocence by showing the contents of her phone, her pleas were dismissively ignored.

The confrontation reached a climax when the manager, continuing in his unprofessional manner, instructed the cashier to refund the woman's purchases and demanded that she leave the store immediately. This public humiliation, based on a misjudgement, was both unwarranted and deeply troubling.

Such behaviour undermines the fabric of trust and respect that should bind our community, especially in spaces meant to serve us all. It's imperative that we uphold standards of respect and understanding. Let this incident not be a marker of division, but a call to ensure fair treatment and dignity for all individuals within our community.

Unity Through Humility
2 Therefore if there is any consolation in Christ, if any comfort of love, if any fellowship of the Spirit, if any affection and mercy, 2 fulfill my joy by being like-minded, having the same love, being of one accord, of one mind. 3 Let nothing be done through selfish ambition or conceit, but in lowliness of mind let each esteem others better than himself. 4 Let each of you look out not only for his own interests, but also for the interests of others.

The Humbled and Exalted Christ
5 Let this mind be in you which was also in Christ Jesus, 6 who, being in the form of God, did not consider it robbery to be equal with God, 7 but made

Himself of no reputation, taking the form of a bondservant, and coming in the likeness of men. 8 And being found in appearance as a man, He humbled Himself and became obedient to the point of death, even the death of the cross. 9 Therefore God also has highly exalted Him and given Him the name which is above every name, 10 that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of those in heaven, and of those on earth, and of those under the earth, 11 and that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

Do you think it should be legal to make your own fuel?

I recognise the steep climb in petrol prices and the financial strain it brings, yet embarking on DIY petrol production is fraught with danger. Crafting petrol involves handling highly volatile substances, where a single misstep can lead to disastrous explosions. It's wiser to defer to the experts who are equipped with the necessary skills and knowledge to safely produce petrol. Armand Fritz

No. Because of safety concerns, producing petrol can be dangerous as it involves handling flammable materials. There is a risk of accidents, fires, and explosions, which can be harmful to individuals and properties. Lucky Makinta

Should the captive lion industry be banned?

With lions facing near extinction and the constant threat of poaching for their body parts, the industry's conservation benefits are minimal and highly localised in Africa. In practice, in very few places in Africa does trophy hunting fulfil its conservation mandate. The government is currently considering a ban on the captivity of lions, including commercial use of lions and their products. Do you support making the captive lion industry illegal?

Here's how you can participate. Email us at news@platinumbushvelder.co.za or WhatsApp your response to 081 579 7000. Include the following:

- Your answer: Yes or No
- Why? We want to hear from you!
- A recent photo – We'd love to publish your pic alongside your answer!
- Your town/city
- Deadline – Be sure to send your response before 12:00 on Monday, 15 April 2024.

PAWS and reflect

Between the wild and the cage:
South Africa's lion industry at a turning point

The government's stance and report

- Legislation update: On April 3 2024, minister of Forestry, Fisheries and the Environment, Barbara Creasy released a report by the Ministerial Task Team on voluntary exit strategies from the captive lion industry, which has been approved by the Cabinet for implementation.
- Key concerns: The report likely addresses ethical concerns about animal welfare, the impact on conservation efforts, and the broader implications for South Africa's wildlife and international reputation.

Industry perspective

- Conservation and care: Those within the industry, such as the anonymous source who spoke to Platinum Weekly, argue that they provide care, meet dietary needs, and contribute to conservation by keeping lions that are vulnerable to extinction alive and well. Income derived from these 'captive' lions also contribute financially to the upkeep of other wildlife and nature conservation.
- Economic impact: The industry supports jobs and contributes to local economies through tourism and ancillary services on a much larger scale than people think.

Ethical and ecological considerations

- Vulnerability to extinction: The International Union for the Conservation of Nature (IUCN) lists lions as vulnerable to extinction.
- Illegal poaching and trade: The threat of poaching and illegal trade is significant, with some arguing that captivity provides a safer environment for lions.
- Ethical concerns about captivity: Critics argue that keeping lions in captivity for profit, under the guise of conservation, poses ethical questions, especially when involving practices like canned hunting.
- Trophy hunting: Dr. Craig Packer, one of the world's pre-eminent lion experts, has estimated that "80% of the lions left in the world are in the hunters' hands". Put another way, hunting concessions 'protect' many more lions than do national parks in Africa. In practice, in very few places in Africa does trophy hunting fulfil its conservation mandate. Too often, corruption in the awarding of hunting concessions means that it is wealthy interests with close ties to government officials who win the contracts rather than conservation-minded hunters.

The challenge lies in balancing economic realities with ethical and ecological considerations, aiming for a future where lions and other vulnerable species can thrive both in the wild and under human care, in ways that respect their wellbeing and ecological roles.

The question remains: Should we let nature run its course, risking lions to roam towards an uncertain fate, potentially demoting these majestic beings to mere memories captured in photographs and digital archives? Or do we embrace our stewardship, safeguarding their existence with intention and care, as duty and compassion dictate?

Hengel harte klop hoog in Thabazimbi

Thabazimbi – Die naweek van 23 en 24 Maart 2024 het gesorg vir groot opwinding en mededinging vir die lede van die Thabazimbi Hengelklub. Die klub het hul maandelikse hengelkompetisie by die Northam Konsentrator aangebied, 'n geleentheid wat hengelaars van heinde en verre gelok het. Met hul hoeke gesluip en katrolle gereed, het die deelnemers die uitdaging aangepak in 'n oornagkompetisie van Saterdagmiddag tot Sondagmiddag. Die kompetisie het 'n uitstekende reeks vangsopelewer, en die wenner is bepaal deur 'n puntstelsel wat beide die aantal en die gewig van die gevangde vis in ag neem. Die trots en moeite van die hengelaars was duidelik by die inweegpunt waar 'n "moeë klompie" met sakke vol vis opgedaag het. Die Thabazimbi Hengelklub het ook aangekondig dat hulle volgende klubkompetisie in die vorm van 'n dagkompetisie sal wees, wat by een van die plaaslike boere se damme gehou sal word. Alle belangstellendes word aangemoedig om die klubvoorsitter, Rassie Erasmus, te kontak by 072 456 8411 vir meer inligting.

Rochelle Maritz het uitgestaan as een van ons dogters met 'n uitmuntende sak vis, wat 'n totaal van 40 visse en 41.23kg ingebring het.

Jessica Strydom, ons jongste hengelentoelias, het trots haar Karlie vertoon, 'n bewys van haar groeiende talent.

Liane du Plessis het weereens gewys waarom sy beskou word as 'n 'cub' hengelentoelias, wat by die dag haar vangste verbeter.

Rudolf du Plessis het die senior kategorie gewen, 'n prestasie wat sy vaardigheid en ervaring in die sport onderstreep.

Jackie Botha het aandag getrek met 'n knewel van 'n baber wat die skaal op 7.4kg getrek het, 'n meesterstuk van 'n vangs.

Rhinos triumph in season opener

Setaria – The Northam Platinum Rhino Rugby Club made a remarkable start to the Carlton League season on Saturday 6 April 2024, dominating on their home turf at Bushveld Park, Setaria, matched against their rivals, the Northam Wolves Rugby Club. The Northam Rhinos' first team set the tone for the day with a commanding victory, overpowering the Wolves with an impressive score of 39-5. Not to be outdone, the second team also secured a win with a solid 29-10 score. The day's events culminated with the third team's outstanding performance, as they triumphed with an exceptional score of 33-3. With such a strong start, the Rhino Rugby Club is undoubtedly the team to watch this season!

The Northam Platinum Rhino Rugby Club's members celebrate their victory after the match.

HFM se slimkoppe oorheers in skaak!

Die HFM skaakspan, oorwinnaars in hul stryd teen Hoërskool Randburg, vier hul triomfantelike oorwinning met trots.

Thabazimbi – Dit was 'n trots en vreugdevolle dag vir Hoërskool Frikkie Meyer (HFM) op Saterdag, 6 April 2024, toe hulle in 'n indrukwekkende vertoning van verstand en strategie, Hoërskool Randburg in 'n spanningsvolle skaaktoernooi oorheers het. Die kompetisie, wat op die speelbord van logika en vooruitdenking ontvou het, het geëindig met 'n skitterende oorwinning vir HFM, wat 'n totale telling van 22.5 punte aangeteken het teenoor Randburg se 9.5. Die glanspunt van die dag was ongetwyfeld die merkwaardige prestasie van HFM se skaakspanlede, wat nie net hul teenstanders met groot vaardigheid getroef het nie, maar ook bewys het dat harde werk en toewyding loon. Spesiale gelukwensinge is gerig aan JD van der Sandt, Valene Oberholzer, Janke Serfontein, Johan Badenhorst, en Gift Qulu. Hierdie talentvolle leerders het elkeen daarin geslaag om al vier hulle wedstryde te wen.
