PSALM 27: 1-5

The Lord is my light and my salvation; Whom shall I fear?

1 The Lord is the strength of my life;
Of whom shall I be afraid?
2 When the wicked came against me
To eat[a] up my flesh,
My enemies and foes,
They stumbled and fell.
3 Though an army may encamp against me,
My heart shall not fear;
Though war may rise against me,
In this I will be confident.

4 One thing I have desired of the Lord,
That will I seek:
That I may dwell in the house of the Lord

All the days of my life,
To behold the [b]beauty of the Lord,
And to inquire in His temple.
5 For in the time of trouble
He shall hide me in His pavilion;
In the secret place of His tabernacle
He shall hide me;
He shall set me high upon a rock.

Should non-voters receive the election day public holiday?

The national elections are set for Wednesday, 29 May 2024. Thousands of citizens will join long queues to cast their votes for their preferred political party. Additionally, the day has been declared a national public holiday. However, this raises an important question: Should those who choose not to vote also benefit from the public holiday? We want to hear your opinions!

No, in my opinion, citizens who do not participate in voting should not receive a day off from work. Election day should be recognised as an important occasion. Therefore, those who cannot prove they voted or choose not to vote should be required to work.

Angelique Badenhorst, Thabazimbi

No, providing a day off for non-voters sends the wrong message, as it could be seen as rewarding a lack of interest in the democratic process.

Thabang Makakaba, Regorogile

Thabazimbi – On Thursday 9 May 2024, at approximately 09:00, a terrible accident occurred in 13th Avenue.

“My son, Coert Erasmus (34), was involved in a devastating accident while driving his double cab Isuzu Bakkie,” said Zelda Erasmus, Coert’s mother, in an interview with Platinum Bushvelder. “He suffered a concussion and a broken back.”

In the wake of this tragic incident, the Erasmus family has launched a BackaBuddy page to seek help from the community in covering Coert’s medical expenses. Coert does not have medical aid, and the family is appealing for donations to assist with his medical treatment. Every rand contributed can make a significant difference. To support Coert, please visit: <https://www.backabuddy.co.za/campaign/medical-assistance-for-coert>.

The Erasmus family extends their deepest gratitude to everyone who has offered prayers, support, and assistance during this challenging time. They are overwhelmed by the community’s generosity and kindness.

Devastating fire contained after four days

Emergency personnel quenching the fire.

The fire consuming everything in its path.

Thabazimbi – A fierce veld fire, which ignited on Tuesday 14 May 2024, was finally extinguished on 18 May, after burning through approximately 3,500 hectares of land.

The fire is believed to have been sparked by lightning on Tuesday afternoon, near Meletse and Verdrag. Initially, farmers in the area could do nothing to combat the blaze as it raged high in the mountains, making it impossible for vehicles to reach the fire.

On Friday, 17 May, the fire descended from the mountains, prompting farmers to take action to prevent it from spreading to other farms. With meticulous planning, they decided to start a counterfire on Saturday to halt the advancing flames.

Early Saturday morning, Thaba Fire and Rescue initiated controlled burns to combat the fire. By 23:00 that evening, all fires were finally under control. This success was due to the collaborative efforts of Thaba Fire and Rescue, local farmers, and Wildmed Emergency Services.

Rosond generously provided a 10,000-litre water truck, which was invaluable as the nearest water points were far from the fire. In total, around 5,000 litres of water were used, and a 16-kilometre firebreak was created.

The swift response and teamwork of all involved were crucial in preventing further destruction and protecting the surrounding community.

Community participation strengthens Thabazimbi’s development plans

Community members at one of the IPD meetings.

Thabazimbi – The mayor of Thabazimbi Local Municipality (TLM), councillor Tokkie Swanepoel, expresses deep gratitude to the community for their active involvement and valuable input into the municipality’s plans. She thanks community members for expressing their needs and challenges, highlighting the importance of their participation in shaping the municipality’s future. The municipality’s Integrated Development Planning (IDP) meetings for 2024/2025 kicked off in Northam on Thursday, 16 May 2024. During the meeting, the mayor presented the draft IDP to the community, which includes capital projects aimed at addressing the water crisis and improving sanitation. Additionally, the plan emphasises the regular maintenance of roads and internal streets. The public participation meetings aim to gather input and feedback from residents and stakeholders, ensuring that the IDP reflects the community’s needs and priorities.
