SERIOUS FLOOD WARNING!

Stay alert. Stay safe.
Help where you can!

19 February 2025: The Thabazimbi region is in crisis as relentless rains have caused catastrophic flooding along the Crocodile River and surrounding low-lying areas. Roads are impassable, rescues are ongoing, and emergency teams are stretched to their limits. The situation is changing rapidly, and authorities urge residents to take immediate precautions.

WORST FLOODING IN YEARS

Rescuers save families, more in danger

Immediate dangers

- Bridges swept away, including Beestekraal Bridge.
- A child was swept away by the floodwaters, but rescue teams rescued the child and multiple people had to be rescued from rooftops as water levels rose dangerously high.
- Entire families, including a three-month-old baby, have been saved from rising waters.
- Dwaalboom remains the most critical area, with multiple rescues underway.
- Helicopters deployed to assist emergency services and transport medical personnel.
- Emergency teams responding to distress calls in Rooibokkraal and Elandskuilbrug.

Road closures

- R510 between Thabazimbi and Northam
- D1235 (Brits road from Northam)
- Low-water bridges to Tumela Mine
- Multiple rural roads flooded, leaving some communities cut off.

Urgent safety measures

- » Move to higher ground immediately.
- » Pack emergency bags for possible evacuation.
- » Do NOT attempt to cross flooded roads — water levels are unpredictable and stronger than they appear!
- » Check the 2,000 flood line and prepare accordingly.
- » Share information about impassable roads with rescue teams to improve response efforts.

Emergency response

Sadly, one life was lost. At the time of going to print, no further details were available. Authorities are prioritising life-threatening situations, with helicopters flying in medical teams to inaccessible areas. Rescuers have already conducted 25 aviation rescues and 6 ground rescues on 19 February, and additional teams are being deployed to hard-hit zones. The biggest concern remains Dwaalboom, where floodwaters continue to rise.

A salute to our heroes

To Thaba Fire & Rescue, Matlabas, EMS teams, local mine rescue squads, and volunteers—your courage is saving lives. We thank you. Your tireless efforts, in the midst of chaos, are making all the difference.

DRUG DEALERS CAUGHT, but is Thabazimbi winning the battle?

Thabazimbi – A well-coordinated intelligence-led operation between the South African Police Service (SAPS) in Thabazimbi and local farmers in Koedoeskop resulted in a significant drug bust on Thursday, 13 February 2025, around 10:00. Two Zimbabwean nationals, aged 25 and 39, were arrested after law enforcement intercepted their white Scania truck with two trailers packed with a staggering 148.5 kg of dagga. Police spokesperson, colonel Malesela Ledwaba, confirmed that upon stopping and searching the vehicle, officers discovered 106 small bags of dagga, 10 large bags, and two refuse bags filled with loose dagga. The street value of the seized contraband is estimated at R500,000. Limpopo provincial commissioner, lieutenant general Thembi Hadebe, has welcomed the arrests, stating that such operations demonstrate SAPS's commitment to dismantling drug networks in the region. The two suspects are expected to appear before the local Magistrate's Court soon on charges of possession and dealing in dagga.

The R500,000 worth of dagga found hidden in the truck's trailers.

The truck used to transport the massive dagga haul was seized by police.

A message from Beverley Spira Kühn, board member, Thabazimbi Homeless Shelter

A drug crisis on our doorstep

While the bust is a victory for law enforcement, it sheds light on a larger, more troubling issue plaguing Thabazimbi — an escalating drug crisis that is devastating families, fuelling crime, and leaving homeless individuals trapped in a relentless cycle of addiction. It's a grim picture of the town's drug epidemic. Drug abuse is rampant, with substances being openly sold and consumed in the streets. The shelter regularly encounters homeless individuals who are turned away due to failed drug tests, many of whom have struggled with addiction for over a decade.

People are mixing dangerous cocktails of over-the-counter pills, ARV medication, rat poison, and watered-down heroin with cannabis. Others are turning to meth, hallucinogenic mushrooms, and nyope, which is one of the cheapest highs available for as little as R20.

The consequences of addiction ripple through the community — leading to job losses, family breakdowns, and a surge in crime, particularly copper theft, break-ins, and the resale of stolen electronics. While foreign drug dealers are often blamed, many locals are also involved in the manufacturing and distribution of these deadly substances.

A grim reality for Thabazimbi's youth

Perhaps most concerning is the rise of drug use among children as young as 10. Schools have been working tirelessly to keep substances out, but dealers and runners remain a constant presence, lurking in parking lots and public spaces.

Even for those who manage to go through rehab, the battle is far from over. Dealers are relentless. The moment a recovering addict returns, they are tracked down and offered drugs again.

The lack of enforcement against drug dealers further exacerbates the problem. In my 15 years in Thabazimbi, I've seen countless cases of theft linked to drug addiction, but how many actual drug dealers have been arrested? Almost none...

What can be done?

I urge residents to rethink how they engage with the homeless and addicted individuals. Handing out money and food often unintentionally fuels drug purchases. I also call for stricter law enforcement action, as well as community-driven efforts to address addiction at its root. The recent dagga bust is a strong step in the right direction — but as Thabazimbi's growing drug crisis proves, it will take much more to win the war against addiction.

THABAZIMBI CHILD ASSAULT TRIAL POSTPONED AGAIN

Justice delayed, but not denied

Thabazimbi – The long-running case against Ria Oberholzer, Petrus Oelofse, and Jessica Hull has once again been delayed, with the trial now set to continue on 15 April and 29 April 2025. The postponement comes as the court awaits critical testimony from a state witness, reinforcing the complexities surrounding the case. This development follows a previous delay, where the trial was initially scheduled to commence on 13 and 18 February 2025 but was postponed due to concerns for the psychological wellbeing of the young victims preparing for their final examinations. The accused are facing serious charges related to child assault and neglect. Oelofse is charged with sexual assault and child neglect, while Oberholzer and Hull are accused of child neglect and assault with intent to cause grievous bodily harm. The case, which has now spanned over a year and a half, has encountered multiple delays, further extending the emotional toll on the victims and their families.

SOULFOOD

1 JOHN 4

Love for God and One Another

4 Beloved, do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits, whether they are of God; because many false prophets have gone out into the world. 2 By this you know the Spirit of God: Every spirit that confesses that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is of God, 3 and every spirit that does not confess that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is not of God. And this is the spirit of the Antichrist, which you have heard was coming, and is now already in the world.

4 You are of God, little children, and have overcome them, because He who is in you is greater than he who is in the world. 5 They are of the world. Therefore they speak as of the world, and the world hears them. 6 We are of God. He who knows God hears us; he who is not of God does not hear us. By this we know the spirit of truth and the spirit of error.

Did you know?

Ever heard that water always drains clockwise in the Southern Hemisphere and counterclockwise in the Northern Hemisphere? It sounds like a fun fact, but it's actually a myth! While the Coriolis effect does influence large-scale weather patterns, it's too weak to dictate how your sink drains. Instead, the direction of the swirl depends on the shape of the sink, the angle of the drain, and any existing water movement. So next time you see water spiralling down, don't blame the Earth's rotation — blame your sink!

Bulls-Eye in the Rain: Archers Conquer the Elements

Thabazimbi – Archery has never been a sport for the faint-hearted, and the past weekend's competition at Camp Yakol proved just that. Despite relentless rain, determined archers took to the field, proving that neither wind nor soaking downpours could shake their focus. The Thabazimbi Archery Club, known for its balance of social and competitive spirit, saw its members take on a challenging two-day field competition on 14 and 15 February 2025 at Camp Yakol, 15 km outside of Modimolle. Typically, archers brace themselves against sun and wind, but this time, nature had a different challenge in store — unforgiving rain. Precision, persistence, and passion Camp Yakol, home to many adventure camps for school and youth groups, hosted the event on a rugged course where competitors had to shoot from a variety of terrains, including inclines, declines, and rocky paths. Safety briefings were conducted by Hendré Schoeurs, ensuring all archers understood the layout and the necessary precautions before taking aim. Podium performers Despite the challenges, the competition produced impressive results. Rain or shine, these archers hit their marks, proving that resilience is key in the sport of kings, soldiers, and rebels.

Join the fun! The Thabazimbi Archery Club is not just about competition; it's about community. Every Tuesday evening, the club hosts social shoots starting at 17:30, with first arrows flying at 18:00. Spectators are welcome to join in on the fun and witness the skill and determination of these incredible archers.

Setaria – The Northam Platinum Rhinos stormed to a resounding 38-12 victory over Northwest University Vaal in their Castle Super League clash on Saturday, 15 February 2025, in Vanderbijlpark. The Rhinos started off strong but faced stiff resistance in the first half, leading by a narrow 12-7 margin at the break. However, they turned up the heat in the second half, with impact player Jaylin James spearheading the charge, amassing an impressive 16 points, including two tries. Team captain Chaney Willemse delivered a powerhouse performance, crossing the try line and earning the Player of the Match title. The Rhinos' offensive dominance continued as hooker Khwezi Mkhafu, Apehelele Bangani, and Sibabalo Mnkani all contributed to the scoreboard, sealing the win. Assistant coach Flip de Kock is calling on fans to rally behind the team for their upcoming showdown this Saturday, 22 February 2025, where all four Rhinos teams will be in action. "Our teams are ready for this Saturday's showdown."

Please come and join us. There will be a beer tent available and music," says De Kock. For more information, contact Flip de Kock on 076 791 4659.

Thabazimbi – The Ride for a Child charity motorbike ride, a 7,000km journey around South Africa, is more than just an adventure — it's a mission to provide medical care to children in need. Organised by Pediatric Care Africa and led by founder Dr. André Hattingh, this initiative connects volunteer doctors with underprivileged children, ensuring they receive essential diagnoses and treatment. This year, the ride takes an exciting turn for Thabazimbi. "Previous years we had a quick stopover, but this time we have the privilege to sleep over at Deo Volente Country Lodge," says Dr. Hattingh. "We would love the support of the biker community — join us for a ride when we arrive on Thursday, 20 February, or when we leave for Rustenburg on Friday, 21 February." Local bikers and businesses are encouraged to back this noble cause by riding along, spreading awareness, or supporting Pediatric Care Africa's Doctors for Children initiative. Every kilometre counts — so does every act of kindness. For details or donations, visit www.pediatriccareafrica.org or call 076 229 5663.
