Welcome to Extension 6 on the Swartklip Road – where beauty meets bins. Piles of trash greet you on both sides. This can't be the image we want to show the world.

SIES MAN!

Dumping Disaster on our Doorstep

Northam – Welcome to the scenic streets of Northam, where trash takes centre stage and neglect gets a starring role. Ramoabi Street is drowning in filth, the bridge on First Road smells like a bad decision, and the once-welcoming entrance to Extension 6 on Swartklip Road now resembles a landfill auditioning for a horror film.

Community members are livid — and rightly so. The garbage has been festering there for ages. Some residents, frustrated by the lack of waste collection, now take matters into their own hands — by dumping and occasionally torching their rubbish. Because clearly, fire solves everything.

And since nobody gets fined, everyone jumps on the bandwagon. We tell our kids not to litter. So why do the adults need a refresher course? The legal dumpsite is less than 3km away. Honestly — what's the excuse?

STRATE VAN SKAAMTE

Riool het soos riviere deur Northam gestroom toe krag na die pomp afgesny is. Fout lê by munisipale wanbetaling. VF Plus het ingegryp – maar teen daardie tyd was dit reeds te laat. Lees meer op bladsy 2.

Piles of rubbish dumped along Ramoabi Street are not only unsightly but dangerous to health and the environment.

SIES MAN!

The bridge in First Road is now a symbol of neglect and a hotspot for illegal dumping.

"We need people to stop dumping. Full stop," said another frustrated resident. "The dumpsite is just a few kilometres away. Why turn our streets into landfills?"

The logo for Childline South Africa is located in the bottom right corner. It features the word "childline" in a multi-colored, lowercase font, with "South Africa" in a smaller, black, sans-serif font below it. To the right of the text is a stylized orange figure of a person with a heart on their chest, and above it is a black speech bubble containing the number "116" in white, with two orange curved lines on either side suggesting a phone call.

The solution?
It starts with accountability — on both sides.

Sanral launches R516 upgrade

Thabazimbi/ Leeupoort – Sanral (South African National Roads Agency) met with local residents, farmers, and small businesses at Raphuti Sports Ground in Leeupoort on Wednesday 12 March 2025 to unveil plans for a major infrastructure upgrade to the R516. The community engagement aimed to spark meaningful dialogue, ensure transparency, and mobilise support for what is set to be a nearly R1 billion road development investment connecting Thabazimbi to Bela-Bela.

Speaking at the event, Madoda Mthembu, Sanral Limpopo provincial head, emphasised the significance of the R516 upgrade and outlined its far-reaching implications for public safety, local economic development, and transport efficiency in this agriculturally rich and mining-heavy region. “This project is a major upgrade for the community. We’re improving the route from Koedoeskop, at the R511 intersection, toward Bela-Bela — enhancing accessibility and paving the way for sustainable growth,” Mthembu said. “We appoint highly skilled service providers—from design engineers to contractors—and we pride ourselves on completing projects we start,” he noted.

From the outset, Sanral has placed community inclusion at the heart of the planning process. Farmers along the route were consulted during the design phase, with formal feedback processes in place. “Each farmer was given a report to sign off, confirming their approval of the project,” Mthembu explained. “Their ongoing support during construction remains vital.”

Balancing progress with environmental responsibility, Sanral committed to managing construction disruptions with sensitivity. The use of shorter “Stop-and-Go” sections will minimise traffic delays while construction is underway.

Community members gathered in unity at Raphuti Sports Ground, Leeupoort, to hear about the R516 upgrade — proof that development starts with conversation.

SNIFFED OUT AND SMOKED OUT!

Northam – Two suspects were arrested in separate incidents during a targeted Vhuthu Hawe operation in Northam on Saturday, 22 March 2025. The suspects, aged 27 and 31, were nabbed for possession of dagga and dealing in illicit cigarettes respectively, following a sharp-eyed police operation led by the Lephalale K9 Dog Unit.

According to police spokesperson brigadier Hlulani Mashaba; in the first incident, officers swooped in on Smashblock after receiving information about an individual allegedly in possession of dagga. Upon arrival, they searched a 31-year-old male suspect and discovered dagga with a street value estimated at R500. He was arrested at the scene.

The team then moved swiftly to Northam RDP Block 2, where a 27-year-old foreign national was apprehended at a rented residence. He was found in possession of illicit cigarettes with a market value of approximately R6,000. The suspects appeared before the Northam Magistrate’s Court on Monday, 24 March 2025. Meanwhile, investigations remain ongoing.

“NOT ON OUR SHELVES!”

Officials conducted an inspection at one of the local shops — prioritising community health at grassroots level.

Thabazimbi/ Northam – The Thabazimbi Local Municipality, through its local economic development unit, led a collaborative operation on Wednesday, 19 March 2025, targeting food safety violations in Northam.

The operation saw the combined efforts of the Waterberg District Health inspectors, South African Police Service (SAPS), the Limpopo Department of Local Economic Development, Environment & Tourism, Community Police Forums (CPF), private security companies, and other key stakeholders.

Their mission? To ensure food sold to residents meets health and safety standards — and to prevent dangerous food poisoning incidents.

Environmental health practitioners carried out inspections at various food-handling premises, uncovering serious concerns. A shocking 88 kilograms of unfit and unsafe food products were identified, removed from shop shelves, and promptly disposed of at the Thabazimbi Landfill Site.

Two Spaza shops were also temporarily shut down and served with probation letters for failing to comply with basic food safety regulations.

THABAZIMBI LICENSING OFFICE REOPENS

– But There’s a Catch!

Thabazimbi – The Thabazimbi Licensing Offices officially reopened on Monday, 24 March 2025. The following services are now available:

- Collection of driving licenses
- Change of ownerships
- Vehicle registration and licensing
- Vehicle testing
- Disc renewals

However, there’s still one big snag: You still can’t apply for or write your driver’s license tests. That particular service remains unavailable until further notice.

Bribery on the R510: officer busted — but tipped off?

Thabazimbi/ Rustenburg – A local driver recently faced a shocking encounter on the R510 near Sandfontein, as previously reported on in Platinum Bushvelder newspaper. Pulled over by a traffic officer while en route to Thabazimbi from Rustenburg, the driver was accused of overloading and told to pay a R1,500 bribe to get his license back.

The company reported the incident to police on Friday, 18 February 2025. Shortly after, the same officer returned, threw the license back at the driver, and said, “I hear you want to get me arrested.”

The incident raises serious concerns — was the corrupt officer warned by someone after the report was made?

In response, brigadier Sabata Mokgwabone said the police are committed to professional service, and all complaints must be reported for investigation.

If this happened to you, speak up. Our roads must be safe — for everyone.

FUN FACT

Did you know?

Ever noticed that fresh, earthy smell before it rains? That scent is called 'petrichor'. It comes from tiny bacteria in the soil that release a natural chemical called 'geosmin' when the air gets humid. As a storm gets closer, the moisture lifts this scent into the air, letting you smell the rain before it even starts. Some people notice it more than others — almost like a built-in weather alarm! So next time you catch that smell, you'll know rain is on the way.

THABAZIMBI ARCHERS HIT THE MARK AT NATIONALS!

PERSONAL BEST, NATIONAL BEST! With a stunning personal best of 555/560 on field targets, HJ Swanepoel rocketed to the top of the podium in the Adult Male Freestyle Unlimited class. Rivals Werner Smit (Pretoria) and Axel Zuur (Johannesburg) shared silver in his wake.

PERFECT SCORE, GOLDEN GLORY! Chris Welgemoed hit every single mark — a perfect 560/560 on the animal round — to clinch gold in Veteran Male Freestyle Unlimited. He edged out Niekie Kock from Cape Town and club teammate Jaco van Vuuren in an unforgettable finish.

BRONZE WITH HONOUR! Reinhart Labuschagne gave it his all, landing a well-earned bronze in the Junior Male Bowhunter Unlimited class. A fierce face-off with Tzaneen's top shots, Henk Meyer (gold) and Christiaan Loots (silver), ended with Reinhart holding his own.

Thabazimbi – When most were packing for a long weekend of leisure, the Thabazimbi Archery Club packed their bows and arrows — heading straight into three days of fiery competition at the 2025 National Archery Event, held from 21–23 March 2025. And what a weekend it was!

Archers from every corner of the country — from Phalaborwa, Tzaneen, and Letsitele to Bloemfontein, Barberton, Gauteng, and even Cape Town — converged in the blistering Bushveld heat to test their mettle. Over three intense days, competitors walked a gruelling 28-butt course, firing 112 arrows daily across field, hunter, and animal rounds. Every arrow counted, and a single slip could flip the leaderboard. Yet, the Thabazimbi Archery Club held their nerve — and delivered.

Thabazimbi Archery Club results

- Gert Snyman – Three new SA records in VMFS-C (Veteran Male Freestyle – Compound)
- Chris Welgemoed – Gold, VMFU (Veteran Male Freestyle Unlimited)
- HJ Swanepoel – Gold, AMFU (Adult Male Freestyle Unlimited)
- Mathilda Broekhuizen – Gold, Adult Female Bowhunter Unlimited
- Mardus Ras – Gold, JMFU (Junior Male Freestyle Unlimited)
- Reinhart Labuschagne – Bronze, Junior Male Bowhunter Unlimited
- Jaco van Vuuren – Bronze, VMFU (Veteran Male Freestyle Unlimited)

This isn't just sport — it's strategy, endurance, and a whole lot of heart. Archers walk, aim, shoot, and repeat under relentless heat — a test of skill, stamina, and mental grit.

The good news? Anyone can join. Practice takes place every Tuesday evening at Thabazimbi Archery Club — 17:30 for 17:45, arrows fly at 18:00 sharp.

Next up: Nationals 2026 in Bloemfontein. The Thabazimbi team is already locked in and ready to rise. Want to be part of the action? Come shoot with the best.

Rhinos dominate Naka Bulls

VICTORY IN THEIR EYES... The triumphant Northam Platinum Rhinos first team celebrates their hard-fought 38-35 win over the Naka Bulls.

GOLDEN GRIT! In a head-to-head showdown of Junior Male Freestyle Unlimited archers, Mardus Ras (left) outscored rival Marco Janse van Rensburg (right) from Tzaneen. The pair delivered flawless scores on the tricky “bunnies” hunter target — but it was Mardus who edged ahead for gold.

LADIES LEAD THE WAY! Thabazimbi's own Mathilda Broekhuizen (right) takes a victorious aim, defeating Lucinda Kleynhans (Pretoria) to claim gold in the Adult Female Bowhunter Unlimited category. Five pins, no lenses, no stabilisers — just nerves of steel.

RECORD BREAKER! Gert Snyman (left) lines up on hunter targets alongside teammate Chris Welgemoed (right) on Day 2. Gert didn't just show up — he shattered three South African records in the Veteran Male Freestyle – Compound category, shooting compound with fingers only — no release. Precision, power, and poise.

Northam – The Northam Platinum Rhinos Rugby Club charged to victory at Naka Bulls Park, delivering a clean sweep against the Naka Bulls Rugby Club!

The first team edged out a thrilling 38-35 win, while the second team crushed their opponents 41-19, and the third team sealed the dominance with a 38-21 triumph.

Now, all eyes are on their next battle against Klerksdorp Rugby Club at Oliënpark in Potchefstroom on Saturday, 28 March 2025. “Please come and support our teams,” urged assistant coach Flip de Kock. Be there to witness the action! For more details, contact Flip on 076 791 4659.
