Nature on the Move, LEOPARD ON R510

Sandfontein/ R510

– A rare and majestic moment in nature was captured when a leopard was spotted on Sunday, 18 May 2025, just before dawn, along the R510 road from Sandfontein towards Ramokokastad.

The leopard, recorded in a short video clip shared by a community member, has stirred a mix of wonder and concern. While sightings of wild predators outside conservation areas are uncommon, the Department of Economic Development, Environment, Conservation and Tourism (DEDECT) has confirmed that leopards do occur naturally beyond park boundaries and often move across roads and even provinces.

“Reports such as these are taken seriously. We appreciate community involvement and encourage responsible wildlife awareness,” said Jeremiah Matebesi, spokesperson for DEDECT.

Captured from a community video: A rare sighting of a leopard making its way along the R510 near Ramokokastad.

As a precaution, DEDECT has already informed local security. Officials are also urging residents to exercise caution and to follow these guidelines:

- Do not approach, provoke, or attempt to catch the leopard.
- If spotted again, try to safely capture a photo or video and report it immediately.

Who to contact?

- Vasti Jacobs (Bojanala area): 083 761 7497
- Reggie Kgetsana (Ngaka Modiri Molema district): 066 448 0136
- Siyabonga Mseleku (Dr Kenneth Kaunda and Dr Ruth Segomotsi Mompoti districts): 061 478 5931

DEDECT emphasised the importance of photographic or video verification, or evidence of livestock predation, to ensure rapid and effective response. Residents are encouraged to remain vigilant, stay safe, and admire wildlife from a respectful distance.

Blocked and Overflowing: Regorogile Residents Plead for Relief

Thabo Gelebooi Ntebele stands outside his home where a stream of sewage has carved a river through the street. Residents placed rocks in the water to create a makeshift path, hopping from stone to stone just to cross the sewage.

A stream of thick, green, foul-smelling water continues to run down the street in Extension 6 — months after the initial flooding began.

Regorogile (Thabazimbi) – Residents of Extension 6 in Regorogile say they've had enough after months of struggling with sewage overflow, stagnant water, and poor refuse management.

Thabo Gelebooi Ntebele, a long-time resident, says the sewer has been running past his home since Saturday, 17 May 2025. "We feel ignored," he said.

Another resident, Mpule Makata, echoed these concerns, stating that water has been standing in the streets since the heavy rains in December 2024. "The truck came on Saturday, but they left the water behind," she pleaded. Adding to the sanitation concerns is the illegal dumping of waste in areas such as Ipelegeng and Matikiring, with residents reporting ongoing rubbish accumulation.

On 17 May 2025, Thabazimbi Local Municipality (TLM) issued a public statement via Facebook, noting that their Water and Sanitation Services department is currently addressing drainage issues in the area. According to the notice, flooding is being exacerbated by residents blocking water flow into their properties. The municipality stated that their Water, Roads, and Stormwater teams are set to meet soon to assess and restore proper drainage.

TLM urged residents to cooperate with municipal staff during interventions. For assistance, residents can contact Water and Sanitation Services on 083 703 2805.

Piles of illegally dumped waste continue to grow in Ipelegeng and Matikiring.

Did you know?

The old phrase "sleep tight" actually comes from rope beds used in the 16th and 17th centuries. Before spring mattresses, beds were made with ropes woven across wooden frames to support a mattress. Over time, the ropes would sag — so people had to tighten them regularly to get a good night's sleep. Hence the saying, "sleep tight!" It was practical advice... not just a sweet bedtime wish.

HAVE YOUR SAY

Would you pick up litter that's not yours?

A cleaner town starts with small acts. Picking up just one bottle or wrapper could inspire others. Would you do it, even if it's not your mess?

Yes. I will pick up what's not mine, because honouring Abba Father means being obedient — even in the smallest things. Cleaning up is a form of spiritual warfare against decay. It shows I stand for holiness where the enemy tries to sow chaos.

Joyce Samons, Thabazimbi

Yes, I would. I've often picked up litter that isn't mine because it shows responsibility, protects our health, and reflects self-respect. A clean environment benefits everyone — let's stop littering and use bins properly.
