Thabazimbi – On 31 July 2014, British national Christine Robinson was brutally murdered on her game farm near Thabazimbi — a horrific crime. She was stabbed repeatedly, her throat slit. Her employee of six years, Andrea Imbayarwo (also known as Andrew Ndlovu), fled the country that same day. Today, her story is once again making international headlines — this time, as a gripping documentary titled 'The Facebook Honeytrap: Catching a Killer', now streaming on Amazon Prime Video. The film reveals the extraordinary six-year journey of Christine's niece, Lehanne Sergison, who posed as a young woman online and tricked the suspect into revealing his location. Thanks to her courage and persistence, Imbayarwo was arrested exactly six years after the murder — on 31 July 2020 — and eventually convicted of rape and murder. But justice came too late for Christine... and far too many others.

“She wasn’t just a headline.
She was my aunt.”

Thabazimbi — In the documentary, Sergison tells how she texted flirtatiously with the suspect for months, gathering clues — while fighting her own health battles in the UK. “She wasn’t just a photograph in an evidence docket,” she said of her aunt. “She was real. She had family. She had friends. She had a life left to lead.”

Christine, a teacher from Liverpool who had lived in countries around the world, had settled in South Africa with her late husband, Robbie. After his death in 2012, she bravely returned to the farm to continue running the lodge they built together.

She had just begun the process of selling it — and returning home — when her life was taken for a few hundred pounds.

A symbol of a deeper crisis

Christine's case may have reached justice — but she is one among many lives lost in a broader tragedy. In Gauteng, just outside Pretoria in the Kameeldrift/ Buffelsdrift area, two farm murders occurred within just four days in late July 2025:

- On 24 July 2025, a plot owner was found tied up and severely assaulted on his smallholding. His son, reviewing security footage, discovered four intruders fleeing; the victim later died in hospital.
- Then on 28 July 2025, another farmer was killed in the early hours of the morning. Intruders forced their way into the house, firing shots. The 46 year old victim was found with a fatal gunshot wound to the chest and died at the scene.

The sustained violence — often involving torture, forced entry, and targeted execution — has driven calls for farm murders to be officially classified as priority crimes. Many see this as vital recognition of the unique nature and severity of such attacks. Farmer communities, farmworkers, and landowners are living in terror — and grieving repeatedly. And while Christine Robinson's case received high-profile attention and ultimately justice, many similar stories remain unresolved. That 2020 Thabazimbi protest — where locals rallied outside the courthouse with banners and honking horns — became a rallying cry: "Enough is enough."

She will not be forgotten

Christine's legacy now lives on in a global documentary. But her true legacy lives in the hearts of those who knew her — and in the resilience of a community that refuses to stay silent. “She was chatty and funny,” says Sergison. “She would’ve given him the money, if he’d only asked. Instead, someone took her life — and changed all of ours forever.”

The Northam Platinum Rhinos Rugby Club team in action during the Waterberg League semi-final clash against Nylstroom.

RHINOS STORM INTO THE FINAL!

Setaria – The Northam Platinum Rhinos Rugby Club proved their might with an action-packed weekend of victories, bringing pride to their home turf and thrilling fans across the region.

On Friday, 25 July 2025, the Rhinos locked horns with Nylstroom at Bosveld Park in the Waterberg League semi-final, coming out on top with a thrilling 27–22 win. The clash was fierce, but the Rhinos held their ground and secured a place in the final. Their momentum didn't stop there. The very next day, Saturday, 26 July, all three senior teams travelled to Polokwane to face the Noordelike Rugby Club in the North Region League. The first team dominated with a 71–0 victory, but the match called early due to lightning in the second half. The second team followed suit, shutting out their opponents 69–0. Unfortunately, the third team narrowly missed a win, losing by just two points with a final score of 24–26.

"We're incredibly proud of the team's performance and resilience across all divisions," said assistant coach Flip de Kock. "Now all eyes are on the Waterberg League Final, which kicks off Friday, 1 August at Loskop's field."

HFM'S THIRDS SHOW TRUE GRIT IN FINAL CLASH

Thabazimbi — It was a bitterly cold start and an even tougher finish for Hoërskool Frikkie Meyer's rugby teams at the Limpopo Rugby Finals on Saturday, 26 July 2025, held at Hoërskool Ben Viljoen in Groblersdal. Frikkie Meyer's 2nd and 3rd teams made it to the finals, with buses departing at 02:00 and loyal parents braving the early-morning roads in support.

The 3rd team was up first, facing Hans Strijdom at 08:00. The game ended in a heartbreaking 0–8 loss, marking the end of an incredible 11-year streak in which Frikkie Meyer's 3rd team had consistently brought home the league title.

Yet, it wasn't just the game that left a lasting impression — it was the spirit in which it was played.

Before kick-off and after the final whistle, Frikkie Meyer's 3rd team took a knee in prayer, showing grace in both anticipation and defeat. For many of these young men, this was their final match in school colours — and they played it with dignity and honour.

A moment of solemn respect followed when a Hans Strijdom player suffered a serious injury mid-game. Frikkie Meyer's players immediately bowed the knee once again, waiting quietly as paramedics treated and led the player off the field. In a sports culture often obsessed with winning, these young men reminded us of something far more important: compassion, character, and respect.

Coach Tinka van Wyk praised the players' maturity, noting their sportsmanship and humility throughout the match. "Well done to the young men of the future," she said. The 2nd team also gave their all but narrowly lost 16–25 to Hans Strijdom. Despite the back-to-back defeats, the values on display — perseverance, team spirit, and respect for opponents — left Frikkie Meyer supporters beaming with pride.
