Heavy-duty clean-up in action – A TLM bulldozer clears rubble from illegally demolished structures, making way for a safer and tidier space.

PRECISION WORK... A front-end loader navigates through piles of rubble, tackling the heaviest debris with ease.

SWEEPING AWAY THE REMNANTS... Machinery removes the last standing pieces of demolished structures, marking visible progress in Northam's clean-up drive.

Northam's streets are looking cleaner and safer thanks to the Thabazimbi Local Municipality's ongoing Operation Feela programme. Since launching on Monday 4 August 2025, TLM teams have been hard at work removing rubble and unwanted materials from illegally demolished buildings and structures, targeting hotspots such as the Northam taxi rank, Botha Street, Brits Road, and Swartklip Road in Extension 6.

TLM speaker, Cllr Dingaana Joshua Sebata, joined by fellow councillors, municipal manager Gopolang Clement Letsoalo, Northam SAPS, and members of the Community Policing Forum (CPF), rolled up their sleeves to actively participate in the clearing activities. Their joint effort underscored a united commitment to restoring order, enhancing safety, and improving the town's appearance.

In addition to rubble removal, the operation has identified potential business encroachments into road reserves along Swartklip Road. Several illegal water connections were also detected and closed, further protecting municipal resources.

TLM extended heartfelt thanks to all stakeholders for their dedication and teamwork.

From the community: Thanks, TLM!

A FRESH START... An open, debris-free area stands ready for safer community use after the successful removal of illegally demolished structures.

Guardians of the Waterberg: Women Leading the Way in Conservation

Thabazimbi – In celebration of Women's Day 2025, the Waterberg Biosphere Reserve (WBR) and its partners gathered at Deo Gloria Primary School on Friday 8 August 2025 to honour the vital role women play in conservation, environmental stewardship, and community well-being. Under the theme "Empowering Women for a Healthy Waterberg and Future", the day highlighted the power of women in driving change – from protecting biodiversity to breaking social barriers. The event opened with a school clean-up led by Andre Mabokwane from the Waterberg Biosphere Youth Network, before a line-up of inspiring talks and practical demonstrations. Speakers included SANParks rangers Moitsheki Machavi, Vuyiseka Nombe, and Rosina Mogale, who shared the challenges and triumphs of women in conservation. Nelly Leshilo from SUDI addressed the cycle of substance abuse, while Tshegofatso Molefe from LoveLife engaged learners on mental health and well-being. Kelebogile Moreotsile from Valterra Platinum discussed women's contributions to biodiversity conservation. The day also had a strong focus on practical support for girls and women. The Rhisotope Project donated 102 reusable Palesa Pad Care Packages to Grade 7 learners and female staff, with Kgothatso Sothomela and Molebogeng Ntshongwane giving guidance on feminine health and the environmental benefits of reusable sanitary products. SUDI, Valterra Platinum, Anova, LoveLife, and Marakele National Park (SANParks) all added to the day's success through donations of hygiene products, stationery, snack packs, and clean-up materials. Closing the programme, Deo Gloria Primary School principal Mr Matlala thanked all participants and emphasised the importance of empowering women to protect the community's shared natural heritage. This Women's Day was not only about celebration – it was about action, education, and building a legacy for future generations.

Poacher sentenced for Rhino Hunting

Thabazimbi – A poacher has been handed a lengthy prison sentence in the Thabazimbi Regional Court on Tuesday 12 August 2025, after being found guilty on multiple charges, including hunting a specially protected animal without a permit. Peter Zacharia Chaya was arrested in April 2024 after an investigation led by Limpopo's Stock Theft and Endangered Species Unit (STES) uncovered his involvement in illegal hunting activities in the Hoopdal area. Although no rhino was killed during the incident, Chaya faced several serious charges:

- Count 1: Hunting a specially protected animal without a permit – 15 years' imprisonment, with 7 years suspended for 5 years.
- Count 2: Possession of a firearm without a permit – 8 years' imprisonment.
- Count 3: Possession of ammunition without a permit – 5 years' imprisonment.
- Count 6: Being in South Africa illegally – 2 years' imprisonment.

Counts 4 and 5 were withdrawn. The sentences will run concurrently with the sentence for Count 1. The court took into account that Chaya had already spent 15 months in custody before sentencing. Bosveld Misdaad Ondersoek expressed satisfaction with the outcome, praising the teamwork that made the arrest and conviction possible. Special thanks were extended to SAPS Hoopdal, Limpopo Provincial STES, SANParks, BMO, Welgevonden Reaction, WGR analysts, pilot Kahn, and local farmers who assisted during the operation – and investigating officer, warrant officer van Heerden, Limpopo Provincial STES.
