Thabazimbi – Residents of Thabazimbi received an unexpected visitor last week — a young cheetah cub who had lost her way. Thanks to the quick response of local wildlife heroes, the frightened feline's story had a happy ending.

On Tuesday 21 October 2025, at around 06:20, Jaco Havenga received a call from a Spitskop resident who spotted a lone cheetah cub wandering the area. Jaco immediately contacted Dr Jana Pauwels from Kwaggasvley Veterinary Services to assist with the capture.

Although the team couldn't locate the cub that morning, a video later surfaced on a local WhatsApp group showing the young cheetah roaming the streets of Thabazimbi. When Jaco and Dr Pauwels rushed to the scene, the vet couldn't safely dart her due to limited visibility.

Three days later, on 24 October, the elusive cub reappeared — this time in Regorogile Extension 5. A startled resident discovered her while emptying a basin outside. Fearing for their safety, the family retreated indoors and called for help. Once again, Jaco and Dr Pauwels responded, joined by veterinary associate Pikkie van Aardt. This time, Dr Pauwels successfully darted and examined the young cheetah — a 10-month-old female, slightly underfed but otherwise healthy. The vet concluded that she had likely become separated from her mother under unknown circumstances.

The cub has since been safely transported to a rehabilitation centre in Johannesburg, where experts will care for her until she's ready to reunite with her mother, who has been located on a nearby game farm outside Thabazimbi.

"It was an honour working alongside Dr Pauwels in capturing and protecting the young female cub," said Jaco Havenga. "Seeing her safe brings great relief."

Dr Pauwels, who hails from Belgium and has worked in South Africa since 2016, said she loves the thrill of working with wildlife. "Would you rather inject Chihuahuas in an office," she laughed, "or dart giraffes from a helicopter?"

She also urged the public to never harm wild animals, especially cheetahs. "They are shy, careful creatures who avoid confrontation. Please call professionals — Marakele, Thaba Fire and Rescue, or the police — if you spot one."

Thanks to calm thinking, teamwork, and compassion, Thabazimbi's wild wanderer is now safe — and one step closer to finding her way home.

The darting moment — a delicate operation to ensure the young cheetah's safety.

Cuban Dr faces theft charge at Thabazimbi Hospital

Thabazimbi – A 54-year-old Cuban medical doctor, Dr Yamilet Castaneda, appeared before the Thabazimbi Magistrates’ Court on Thursday, 23 October 2025, on a charge of theft of medication from the Thabazimbi Hospital. According to colonel Malesela Ledwaba, the

R510’s Safety in Question Again

Thabazimbi – The notorious R510 road once again lived up to its dangerous reputation this past weekend, with two separate accidents reported on Sunday, 26 October 2025 — both attended by Thaba Fire and Rescue and local emergency services.

The first collision occurred just after midnight near Platina Mine. Around 00:30 am, two vehicles were involved in a head-on collision, followed shortly by another vehicle crashing into the first accident scene. Two people sustained serious injuries, while another suffered minor injuries. The scene was swiftly attended by Thaba Fire and Rescue, Netcare 911 (Thabazimbi), P&K Towing and Recovery, and SAPS Northam.

Later that afternoon, at approximately 17:00, another accident was reported about 20 km outside Thabazimbi on the Ellisras Road (also R510). A single vehicle veered off the road and caught fire — sparking a veld blaze that nearby

Two arrested, rifle recovered after Rooiberg Kidnapping, and Farm Attack

Rooiberg – A police operation between Limpopo and North West has led to the arrest of two men and the recovery of a stolen firearm linked to a farm attack and kidnapping case that took place near Rooiberg earlier this year.

Between Monday, 27 October and Tuesday, 28 October 2025, members of the Limpopo Provincial Murder and Robbery Unit, Bela-Bela Detectives, North West Detectives from Assen, and the Tactical Response Team (TRT) acted on information about the suspects and the stolen firearms.

The team first moved in at Ga-Rasai Village under the Assen policing area, where two suspects aged 40 and 28 were arrested. Further investigation led officers to Raphuthi Section (Vakansie) in the Rooiberg policing area, where a .22 hunting rifle fitted with binoculars, one magazine, four live rounds, and one spent cartridge were found hidden behind a tin house. The rifle is one of eight firearms stolen during the September farm attack. To date, three of the stolen rifles have been recovered, and police continue to trace the remaining weapons. The two suspects will appear before the Thabazimbi Magistrate’s Court soon, while further arrests are expected as investigations continue.

Acting provincial commissioner major general Jan Scheepers praised the officers involved for their dedication and cross-provincial cooperation.

Anyone with information that can assist police is urged to contact colonel Tinyiko Shilenge on 071 673 1814, Crime Stop on 08600 10111, or visit their nearest police station.

HAVE YOUR SAY

Do you follow international news?

From global politics and climate change to events that affect our wallets — like why petrol prices rise or where conflicts are happening — international news impacts us all. Do you keep track of what’s happening around the world, or do you mostly focus on local stories closer to home?

“Yes, I follow international news because our lives in South Africa are closely connected to what happens globally — through business, mining, tourism, and more. The world is interconnected, so staying updated helps me keep up with everything that’s going on.”

Keo Mononyane, Thabazimbi

“I’m not overly interested in international news, and I wouldn’t say I follow it daily. I usually catch up only when something catches my eye or there’s a major development in a story I care about. For me, it’s more of a casual follow than a daily habit.”

Emma Pretorius, Thabazimbi

Did you know?

South Africa might feel drenched during summer storms, but it’s actually one of the driest countries on Earth — receiving less than half the world’s average rainfall each year. Most of our rain falls between October and March, with the Drakensberg Mountains getting the most and the Northern Cape the least. In fact, Alexander Bay can go months without a single drop! So next time you hear thunder, take a moment to appreciate it — every raindrop really does count in Mzansi.
